Gothic Topographies Matti Savolainen.2016-04-22 In demonstrating the global reach of Gothic literatures, this collection takes up the influence of the Gothic mode in literatures that may be geographically remote from one another but still share related issues of minor languages, nation building, place and race. Suggesting that there is a parallel between certain motifs and themes found in the Gothic of the North (Scandinavia, Northern Europe and Canada) and South (Australia, South Africa and the US South), the essays explore the transgressions and confusion of borders and limits, whether they be linguistic, literary, generic, class-based, gendered or sexual. The volume includes essays on a wide diversity of authors and topics: Jan Potocki, Gustav Meyrink, William Godwin, Alan Hollinghurst, Marlene van Niekerk, John Richardson, antislavery discourse and the Gothic imagination, the Australian aboriginal Gothic, vampires of Post-Soviet Gothic society, Danish, Swedish and Finnish fiction and film, and the Canadian female Gothic and the death drive. What distinguishes this book from other collections on the Gothic is the coverage of themes and literatures that are either lacking in the mainstream research on the Gothic or are referred to only briefly in other book-length studies. Experts in the Gothic and those new to the field will appreciate the book's commitment to situating Gothic sensibilities in an international context.

Ancestor Worship and the Elite in Late Iron Age Scandinavia Triin Laidoner.2020-01-14

Ancestor worship is often assumed by contemporary European audiences to be an outdated and primitive tradition with little relevance to our societies, past and present. This book questions that assumption and seeks to determine whether ancestor ideology was an integral part of religion in Viking Age and early medieval Scandinavia. The concept is examined from a broad socio-anthropological perspective, which is used to structure a set of case studies which analyse the cults of specific individuals in Old Norse literature. The situation of gods in Old Norse religion has been almost exclusively addressed in isolation from these socio-anthropological perspectives. The public gravemound cults of deceased rulers are discussed conventionally as cases of sacral kingship, and, more recently, religious ruler ideology; both are seen as having divine associations in Old Norse scholarship. Building on the anthropological framework, this study introduces the concept of 'superior ancestors', employed in social anthropology to denote a form of political ancestor worship used to regulate social structure deliberately. It suggests that Old Norse ruler ideology was based on conventional and widely recognised religious practices revolving around kinship and ancestors and that the gods were perceived as human ancestors belonging to elite families.

Changing Scenes Pirjo Lyytikäinen.2003-12-18 Six articles in Changing scenes represent the ongoing reassessment of fin de siècle literature in Finnish research. The period was seen in earlier research as something of a national renaissance or golden age and interpreted in the light of its national symbols and meanings. Only recently has more attention been paid to its international dimensions and its role in the modernisation of Finnish culture. In particular the spotlight has been trained on the reflection in Finnish literature of manifestations of the degeneration thinking so common in Europe at that time. Research has also picked out works and writers that featured less in earlier studies. One modernist Finnish poet, Neustadt Prize-winning Paavo Haavikko, is also examined in an article representing the latest Finnish research in this field.

Sport and Social Entrepreneurship in Sweden Tomas Peterson,Katarina Schenker.2018-02-13 This edited collection explores the concept of social entrepreneurship in sport, examining how it has been used in Swedish society to date. It explores how this approach in sport could also be used to address wider socio-political issues, including economic, political, cultural and pedagogical in European society. Sport and Social Entrepreneurship in Sweden explores different social entrepreneurship projects which have created new forms of activity and reached groups of children and young people previously disengaged in sport. The authors also highlight the growing momentum of this kind of entrepreneurship in Sweden after a period of societal upheaval that has resulted in a blurring of social borders and the founding of new organisational forms. This book contributes to the formation of a new field of research, involving theoretical and empirical work on the characteristics and possibilities of social entrepreneurship in relation to sport.

Transit □ 'Norden' och 'Europa' Petra Broomans,Ester Jiresch,Janke Klok Klok,Anja Schüppert.2019-04-30 The IASS (International Association for Scandinavian Studies) is the international organization for the research of Nordic literature, culture and linguistics. Since 1956 the IASS conference has been organized every other year. In 2016, the 31th IASS conference took place in Groningen (Netherlands). This 2016 conference revolved around the 21st century as an era characterized by dynamics with different implications. These ongoing global transitions are reflected in the humanities; the dichotomy between centre and periphery has invaded the literary discourse. In many small language areas, more translated literature is being published than literature written in the national language. This implies that cultural mediators play a major role in the production of literature. Their efforts are made visible in a transnational approach to the history of literature.

The Girl Who Trod on the Loaf Hans Christian Andersen.2020-06-29 Inger was a little girl but she was a bad person. This was obvious even when she was very small: she enjoyed catching insects and tearing off their wings without any pity for the poor creatures. When she was a bit bigger, her parents sent her to the country to a good family. Here, she became very refined and, going to visit her parents, decided to walk on her bread rather than in the marsh so she would not dirty her shoes. And this is where her real story begins... Hans Christian Andersen (1805-1875) was a Danish author, poet and artist. Celebrated for children's literature, his most cherished fairy tales include The Emperor's New Clothes, The Little Mermaid, The Nightingale, The Steadfast Tin Soldier, The Snow Queen, The Ugly Duckling and The Little Match Girl. His books have been translated into every living language, and today there is no child or adult that has not met Andersen's whimsical characters. His fairy tales have been adapted to stage and screen countless times, most notably by Disney with the animated films The Little Mermaid in 1989 and Frozen, which is loosely based on The Snow Queen, in 2013. Thanks to Andersen's contribution to children's literature, his birth date, April 2, is celebrated as International Children's Book Day.

Amaya the Buddha Danish Version Varghese V Devasia.2023-05-30 Historien skildrer de simple, men komplekse undertoner i et moder-datterforhold, hvor datteren endda kan slå sin far ihjel for at genoprette sin mors ære. Hovedpersonerne er Amaya, en advokat; hendes datter Supriya (Poornima), en neurolog og hendes far, Karan, en medicinsk forsker. Amayas søgen efter sin kidnappede datter, der er bortført af hendes far, Supriyas psykiske søgen efter sin mor, som blev adskilt ved fødslen, og Karans dobbeltliv udgør temaet. Historien skildrer Amayas længsel efter at møde sin datter og Supriyas erkendelse af, at hendes far var utro mod hendes mor. Det begyndte med et uventet telefonopkald. Amaya og Supriya fortsatte med at kommunikere; hver dag bragte nye afsløringer. Amaya udviklede sig gennem Vipassana og fandt nye områder og betydninger i livet, hvor hun overvandt smerte, sorg, angst og lidelse. Det skabte frigørelse gennem oplysning. Efter 24 års adskillelse møder Amaya Supriya i fængslet. Politiet hævdede, at Supriya dræbte sin far, selvom hun dybt elskede ham. Mordet var en bod for hendes fars forbrydelse mod hendes mor. Enhver kærlighed har et uadskilleligt og ufatteligt spor af hævn; ingen relation eksisterer uden vold. Du slår den person ihjel, du elsker mest.

Audiences Ian Christie.2012 This timely volume engages with one of the most important shifts in recent film studies: the turn away from text-based analysis towards the viewer. Historically, this marks a return to early interest in the effect of film on the audience by psychoanalysts and psychologists, which was overtaken by concern with the 'effects' of film, linked to calls for censorship and moral panics rather than to understanding the mental and behavioral world of the spectator. Early cinema history has revealed the diversity of film-viewing habits, while traditional 'box office' studies, which treated the audience initially as a homogeneous market, have been replaced by the study of individual consumers and their motivations. Latterly, there has been a marked turn towards more sophisticated economic and sociological analysis of attendance data. And as the film experience fragments across multiple formats, the perceptual and cognitive experience of the individual viewer (who is also an auditor) has become increasingly accessible. With contributions from Gregory Waller, John Sedgwick and Martin Barker, this work spans the spectrum of contemporary audience studies, revealing work being done on local, non-theatrical and live digital transmission audiences, and on the relative attraction of large-scale, domestic and mobile platforms.--Publisher's website.

The New Violent Cartography Samson Opondo, Michael J. Shapiro. 2012-06-25 This edited volume seeks to propose and examine different, though related, critical responses to modern cultures of war among other cultural practices of statecraft. Taken together, these essays present a space of creative engagement with the political and draw on a broad range of cultural contexts and genres of expressions to provoke the thinking that exceeds the conventional stories and practices of international relations. In contrast to a macropolitical focus on state policy and inter-state hostilities, the contributors to this volume treat the micropolitics of violence and dissensus that occur below [besides and against] the level and gaze that comprehends official map-making, policy-making and implementation practices. At a minimum, the counter-narratives presented in these essays disturb the functions, identities, and positions assigned by the nation-state, thereby multiplying relations between bodies, the worlds where they live, and the ways in which they are 'equipped' for fitting in them. Contributions deploy feature films, literature, photography, architecture to think the political in ways that offer glimpses of realities that are fugitive within existing perspectives. Bringing together a wide range of theorists from a host of geographical, cultural and theoretical contexts, this work explores the different ways in which an aesthetic treatment of world politics can contribute to an ethics of encounter predicated on minimal violence in encounters with people with different practices of identity. This work provides a significant contribution to the field of international theory, encouraging us to rethink politics and ethics in the world today.

Aunt Toothache Hans Christian Andersen. 2020-10-05 Aunt Mille has always told me that I have the soul of a great poet. I am not sure about this, but I love her so much that I do not dare contradict her. The reason I love her so much is that she always gave me and my brothers and sisters lots of sweets when we were little. Now that I am a student, I have my own apartment and sometimes Aunt Mille comes to visit. The other night, while she was sleeping in the next bedroom, I received a visit from another, much less pleasant, lady... Since then, I do not see Aunt Mille in the same way! The Celibate Danish Version Varghese V Devasia. 2023-06-16 Evolutionen fra en AI-ingeniør til en jesuit, en kristen præst og senere en Aghori Sadhu, en nøgen hindu-munk, er historien. Under en ferie i Goa inviterede Grace, en lokal pige, Abe til at blive hos hende under betingelse af, at han ikke ville røre hende. Han forelskede sig hovedkulds i Grace, men udviklede sig til en cølibat. I Kamakhya-templet informerede Emma, fra Amsterdam, en forsker af Aghori Sadhus, ham om glæderne ved sex, der udfordrede Abes mandighed. Hendes grønne øjne fortryllede ham, og fristelsen rev ham i stykker indefra. En ekkende saga om gnistrende aspirationer og flygtige visioner fra Abe, Grace og Emma, fortryllet af livsglæde og fanget i en fascinerende katastrofe uden udvej, løfter læseren op i en herlig psykisk amorft oplevelse. Denne eksplosive eksistentielle surrealistiske fiktion afslører absurditeten og meningsløsheden af cølibat, askese og afstandtagen. Grace og Emma repræsenterer to facetter af kvindelighed, og Abe er den essentielle kunstner, der forsøger at omgå sin frygt ved at male deres portrætter. Aghori Sadhu symboliserer meningsløsheden af livet. Hans nøgenhed er civilisationens oprindelige tilstand, friheden til at være nøgen.
