Daily Prayer in the Classroom introduces elementary school children to various kinds of prayer; gives teachers confidence in what and how they pray with their students; builds confidence in the adult's ability to lead prayer in the classroom or home; and offers children the opportunity to foster a prayer life. Let's Begin With Prayer Mitch Finley.2016-09-30 Let's begin with prayer. Whether spoken by a student, teacher, or principal, these words signal the beginning of the school day in many Catholic schools. The question is, what comes next? Let's Begin With Prayer offers an eloquent and practical answer. 130 brief prayers specifically designed for use in Catholic junior and senior high schools are offered here, prayers that are grounded in the Catholic tradition while reflecting the concerns of today's Catholic school community. The prayers are divided into three sections. Prayers for Holy Days and Holidays are for the days that regularly appear on our calendars, from saints' days to national holidays. Prayers for Special Days address special events in the school community. Here, you'll find everything from a prayer To Welcome New Students to a prayer Before a Championship Game. Of special interest here is a section of prayers for difficult occasions, such as the death of a classmate. A third section, Prayers for Ordinary Days, offers possibilities for the average day, which is the biggest part of school life. Included here are prayers for development of Christian character, prayers for specific groups within the school community, and prayers for larger world concerns. A final section offers six full prayer services. These brief but meaningful services for occasions such as the beginning and end of the school year provide a way to gather students together for more focused attention to the spiritual dimension. Let's Begin With Prayer will be a welcome resource for anyone attempting to incorporate regular, meaningful prayer into the hubbub of Catholic school life in Catholic junior and senior high schools.

God of the Sandpit Rachele Tullio, Gabby Tullio, Mavis M. Leung. 2013 Prayer has an important and central place in the life of Catholic schools. Whether prayer is private or public, it is recognised as an important way of communicating with God as part of a Catholic school's identity. Yet finding the right prayer can be stressful, especially when invited to lead prayer with others. These times could be: before a staff meeting at a weekly staff prayer gathering before or after school praying with young people in the classroom searching for meaningful prayers during retreats before a school board meeting including a prayer for the school newsletter or for that all-important first meeting of parents with children in a Catholic school. God of the Sandpit is designed to take the stress out of presenting prayer. Part of the challenge is that the language of prayer must meet the needs of those praying. It must be simple and speak 'truths' to the heart about God. This is what God of the Sandpit invites the reader to do - develop insights about God's loving nature. The purpose of this book is two-fold: to provide school communities with fresh and engaging prayers that are timeless and filled with wisdom to reflect on short, appropriate Scripture that is linked to the prayer from InterVarsity's Emerging Scholars Network blog, each chapter addresses common faith- and science-related questions. In part one, Science and Faith delves into why Christians should pursue scientific discovery, as well as the Bible's viewpoint on scientific method and inquiry. Part two begins the conversation on the direct relevance of science to faith and how Christian scientists can talk to their colleagues about their faith, while part three discusses how conversations about science can take place between Christians. Sr. Kathleen is a veteran teacher and it's clear that she has been there and done that with great joy and enthusiasm. But she knows that not every teacher feels secure about praying with a class, even though they know it's important and realize that parents entrust them with this responsibility. And she also realizes that certain Catholic prayer forms are a mystery to them. On the other hand, there are those who feel very comfortable teaching prayer but are looking for fresh ideas.

chaplains or anyone who often reaches for a prayer or service, but finds themselves grabbing material from many different sources. The author has worked a Jesuit school for over 20 years, where school gatherings are common and are always prefaced with prayer. She has regularly searched for and written different prayers to suit moments in the school year, to suit a moment in time. Sometimes she had time to prepare and other times, she found herself running along corridors to pull something from her files or turning to the internet while the bell was ringing! She often wished she had a book under her arm that she could trust would always have something to suit. So she put her prayers together as a go to for people who lead prayer, who provide calm and stillness for others but may have felt frantic in 'finding the right piece.' She has also included a couple of poems from young people as an example of how they continue to inspire her.
