Did you know that many sample IELTS writing answers on the internet today do not match the expectations of an IELTS examiner? Imagine being able to understand how high scoring answers are structured for Task 2? How about learning how grammar and vocabulary are used? You can, just by downloading this book! It will save you time and you'll quickly understand the differences between low scoring answers and high scoring answers. This book has been put together to guide IELTS students on how to best answer the writing questions. Writing Task 2 is designed to test your ability to write an academic style essay. You must present the information in your own words as complete sentences within paragraphs. You are required to write over 250 words, and the task should be completed in about 40 minutes (both part 1 and 2 must be finished in 1 hour). Types of Topics There are many different topics for essays in the exam, but typical topic areas include: education, crime, media, technology, social issues, technology and the future, and the environment. In this case it makes sense to build up vocabulary in these key areas in order to have sufficient language to write an essay well. Types of Questions There are three main types of essay questions that are included in the IELTS writing exam. It is important to learn how to structure each of these types. Each of these will be described more fully in the sections that follow. Briefly, they are an opinion essay, where you are asked to give your own personal opinion on a topic; a both sides and opinion essay, where you are required to discuss both sides of an argument and then give your own personal opinion on the topic; and a two question essay, which involves responding to two different questions.

IELTS Writing Task 2 - Expert Preparation Adam Wensor.2016-04-20 Introducing IELTS Writing Task 2 - Expert Preparation. This book focusses on one of the most important and difficult tasks for many IELTS test-takers worldwide. The approach of this book is unique. It introduces essay writing frameworks based on 13-14 sentences, which when followed, enable students to write an essay which is cohesive, complex and most importantly addresses the IELTS examination criteria. In particular, the included frameworks help students develop the skills necessary to identify specific question types, conceptualise topic sentences and supporting statements and to formulate more complex contrast sentences within paragraphs. Few textbooks on the market provide such clear and concise frameworks for constructing essays specifically geared to IELTS. Focussing on the different question types used in the IELTS test, this book outlines the essay planning process for each before featuring entire essays broken down using the outlined frameworks. For each question type, the text includes essays indicative of Band 9 responses (the highest possible score).
