Feedbooks is a massive collection of downloadable ebooks: fiction and non-fiction, public domain and copyrighted, free and paid. While over 1 million titles are available, only about half of them are free. There aren't a lot of free Kindle books here because they aren't free for a very long period of time, though there are plenty of genres you can browse through. Look carefully on each download page and you can find when the free deal ends. Project Gutenberg is a wonderful source of free ebooks - particularly for academic work. However, it uses US copyright law, which isn't universal; some books listed as public domain might still be in copyright in other countries. RightsDirect explains the situation in more detail. The first step is to go to make sure you're logged into your Google Account and go to Google Books at books.google.com. Because this site is dedicated to free books, there's none of the hassle you get with filtering out paid-for content on Amazon or Google Play Books. We also love the fact that all the site's genres are presented on the homepage, so you don't have to waste time trawling through menus. Unlike the bigger stores, Free-Ebooks.net also lets you sort results by publication date, popularity, or rating, helping you avoid the weaker titles that will inevitably find their way onto open publishing platforms (though a book has to be really quite poor to receive less than four stars). The Open Library: There are over one million free books here, all available in PDF, ePub, Daisy, DjVu and ASCII text. You can search for ebooks specifically by checking the Show only ebooks option under the main search box. Once you've found an ebook, you will see it available in a variety of formats. eBookLobby is a free source of eBooks from different categories like, computer, arts, education and business. There are several sub-categories to choose from which allows you to download from the tons of books that they feature. You can also look at their Top10 eBooks collection that makes it easier for you to choose. Where to Get Free eBooks Self publishing services to help professionals and entrepreneurs write, publish and sell non-fiction books on Amazon & bookstores (CreateSpace, Ingram, etc).
