Wikibooks is a collection of open-content textbooks, which anyone with expertise can edit - including you. Unlike Wikipedia articles, which are essentially lists of facts, Wikibooks is made up of linked chapters that aim to teach the reader about a certain subject. Much of its collection was seeded by Project Gutenberg back in the mid-2000s, but has since taken on an identity of its own with the addition of thousands of self-published works that have been made available at no charge. My favorite part about DigiLibraries.com is that you can click on any of the categories on the left side of the page to quickly see free Kindle books that only fall into that category. It really speeds up the work of narrowing down the books to find what I'm looking for. There are specific categories of books on the website that you can pick from, but only the Free category guarantees that you're looking at free books. They also have a Jr. Edition so you can find the latest free eBooks for your children and teens. The store is easily accessible via any web browser or Android device, but you'll need to create a Google Play account and register a credit card before you can download anything. Your card won't be charged, but you might find it off-putting. Free eBooks for download are hard to find unless you know the right websites. This article lists the seven best sites that offer completely free ebooks. If you're not sure what this is all about, read our introduction to ebooks first. eBook Writing: This category includes topics like cookbooks, diet books, self-help, spirituality, and fiction. Likewise, if you are looking for a basic overview of a resume from complete book, you may get it here in one touch. PixelScroll lists free Kindle eBooks every day that each includes their genre listing, synopsis, and cover. PixelScroll also lists all kinds of other free goodies like free music, videos, and apps. Think of this: When you have titles that you would like to display at one of the conferences we cover or have an author nipping at your heels, but you simply cannot justify the cost of purchasing your own booth, give us a call. We can be the solution.
