Dot Com Mantra Payal Arora. 2016-05-13 Billions of dollars are being spent nationally and globally on providing computing access to digitally disadvantaged groups and cultures with an expectation that computers and the Internet can lead to higher socio-economic mobility. This ethnographic study of social computing in the Central Himalayas, India, investigates alternative social practices with new technologies and media amongst a population that is for the most part undocumented. In doing so, this book offers fresh and critical perspectives in areas of contemporary debate: informal learning with computers, cyberleisure, gender access and empowerment, digital intermediaries, and glocalization of information and media.

'Building Rapport' and 'Winning Hearts' Baljeet Arora,Amit Arora.2020-11-20 We can only build rapport with people and win their hearts when we are strong communicators. We know what we communicate with ourselves internally has a direct impact on what we communicate externally. The most common problem people are facing today is to express themselves and have meaningful relationships. Relationships are built on trust and understanding of human nature.Right from our childhood we have ingrained in our mind that I am a shy person, or I cannot talk to people, I am an introvert but let me tell you one thing, and make it very clear, that communication skills is not an inborn talent, it's the talent that has to be learned. It is not a soft skill; it is a hard skill that needs to be learned, practiced, and applied. All the greatest speakers, leaders, and great conversationalists either have learned through their experiences or have trained themselves for these skills. This book is a solution to all the problems you face because of your language patterns and communications that stop you from building real wealth in your life, i.e., strong and meaningful relationships.To build true and meaningful relationships, you need to build rapport with the people, then you will be in a position to lead your way to the greater heights, and you will be able to achieve what you want in your life.
