The Literature Network: This site is organized alphabetically by author. Click on any author's name, and you'll see a biography, related links and articles, quizzes, and forums. Most of the books here are free, but there are some downloads that require a small fee. FeedBooks provides you with public domain books that feature popular classic novels by famous authors like, Agatha Christie, and Arthur Conan Doyle. The site allows you to download texts almost in all major formats such as, EPUB, MOBI and PDF. The site does not require you to register and hence, you can download books directly from the categories mentioned on the left menu. The best part is that FeedBooks is a fast website and easy to navigate. You can browse the library by category (of which there are hundreds), by most popular (which means total download count), by latest (which means date of upload), or by random (which is a great way to find new material to read). Freebooksy is a free eBook blog that lists primarily free Kindle books but also has free Nook books as well. There's a new book listed at least once a day, but often times there are many listed in one day, and you can download one or all of them. So, look no further as here we have a selection of best websites to download free eBooks for all those book avid readers. You can search for a specific title or browse by genre (books in the same genre are gathered together in bookshelves). It's a shame that fiction and non-fiction aren't separated, and you have to open a bookshelf before you can sort books by country, but those are fairly minor quibbles. Providing publishers with the highest quality, most reliable and cost effective editorial and composition services for 50 years. We're the first choice for publishers' online services. ManyBooks is another free eBook website that scours the Internet to find the greatest and latest in free Kindle books. Currently, there are over 50,000 free eBooks here.
