The site itself is available in English, German, French, Italian, and Portuguese, and the catalog includes books in all languages. There's a heavy bias towards English-language works and translations, but the same is true of all the ebook download sites we've looked at here. Another site that isn't strictly for free books, Slideshare does offer a large amount of free content for you to read. It is an online forum where anyone can upload a digital presentation on any subject. Millions of people utilize SlideShare for research, sharing ideas, and learning about new technologies. SlideShare supports documents and PDF files, and all these are available for free download (after free registration). International Digital Children's Library: Browse through a wide selection of high quality free books for children here. Check out Simple Search to get a big picture of how this library is organized: by age, reading level, length of book, genres, and more. ManyBooks is another free eBook website that scours the Internet to find the greatest and latest in free Kindle books. Currently, there are over 50,000 free eBooks here. The Literature Network: This site is organized alphabetically by author. Click on any author's name, and you'll see a biography, related links and articles, quizzes, and forums. Most of the books here are free, but there are some downloads that require a small fee. You can search for a specific title or browse by genre (books in the same genre are gathered together in bookshelves). It's a shame that fiction and non-fiction aren't separated, and you have to open a bookshelf before you can sort books by country, but those are fairly minor quibbles. Since it's a search engine, browsing for books is almost impossible. The closest thing you can do is use the Authors dropdown in the navigation bar to browse by authors—and even then, you'll have to get used to the terrible user interface of the site overall. eBooks are available as PDF, EPUB, Kindle and plain text files, though not all titles are available in all formats. Self publishing services to help professionals and entrepreneurs write, publish and sell non-fiction books on Amazon & bookstores (CreateSpace, Ingram, etc).
