Excerpt from The Presbyterian Hospital Bulletin, Vol. 76: April, 1932 I have hurriedly touched upon some of the activities for which our Woman's Board is directly' responsible, or contributes to their successful application. I congratulate you heartily on the wonderful work that you have done and are doing. In spite of the depression which has greatly reduced our income we must take care of the sick who come to our doors. We will spend our income wisely. We will operate our hospital efficiently. We will do all in our power to relieve the economic burden on our people. We must cooperate one with another in all matters of policy pertaining to our hospital to the end that our efforts will be of benefit to our patients and to the community we serve. We need your help more than ever before. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. The Presbyterian Hospital Bulletin Mrs. Ernest E. Irons.2017-02-17 Excerpt from The Presbyterian Hospital Bulletin: June-October, 1927 Mrs. Newell had a broad but conservative vision of what the Woman's Board might accomplish. She foresaw the opportunities for a wider scope of work, and wished the Board to accept such opportunities as responsibilities, but always to make sure proper provision was made before such acceptance. And so it was Mrs. Newell who first assumed a large share in the support of Social Service when it was made evident that such service was a necessary adjunct of hospital activity, and the Woman's Board voted to include it in an expansion of its work. Later it was Mrs. Newell who discovered that the income from a certain bequest of Mrs. Daniel A. Jones should properly be devoted to this work, as that was evidently the intent of the bequest, though not so designated, because the name Social Service did not exist at the time the will was executed. Presenting her conviction to the Board of Managers, an agreement was made by which the Woman's Board receives annually four hundred dollars towards its Social Service expense. The Presbyterian Hospital Bulletin Harriet F. Gilchrist.2017-11-07 Excerpt from The Presbyterian Hospital Bulletin: February, 1935 It is with genuine sorrow that we record the loss, since the last meeting of the Woman's Board, of two fine men who will be missed, by all their associates. Mr. W. A. Douglass has been the secretary of the Board of Managers of the hospital during the entire period of its existence more than fifty years. He has been called the perfect secretary. Mr. Charles S. Reed has been in a manner known to the Woman's Board for many years. His mother, Mrs. Charles A. Reed and his sister, Miss Mary Reed both were members of this Board, and contributed generously to its work. We all know the faithful efforts of his wife. Mrs. Douglass, Mrs. Shorey and Mrs. Reed are assured of the sympathy of every member of our Board. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
