Lac la Biche Chronicles Gregory Allan Johnson.2016-07 Lac La Biche Chronicles: The Early Years, is a collection of stories, historical anecdotes, documents, photographs, and maps which tell something about the triumphs, the tragedies, the hardships, and the humour of human survival in Northeastern Alberta. It provides a general introduction to the history of Lac La Biche and its place in the wider context of Canadian history to the end of World War II. The Lac La Biche Chronicles: The Early Years was the inspiration of a long-time resident Michael Maccagno who held political positions as Town Councillor, Town Mayor, Alberta MLA and who in the 1980's held a position in the local college as Historian in Residence. During that time, he established the local community archives and was instrumental in collecting most of the artefacts now on exhibit in the Lac La Biche Regional Museum & Discovery Centre. As Mr. Langford points out in the preface; Mr Maccagno was prompted to suggest a different book to be called Lac La Biche Chronicles, intended to capture a number the interesting stories, photographs, critical events, unique character--the historical vignettes which have helped define, explain, and shape the evolution and development of the Lac La Biche Regional community. The Lac La Biche Chronicles Committee, along with all the community contributors turned his idea into reality.--

A Woman of Valour Claire Trépanier.2010 A Woman of Valour is the biography of Marie-Louise Bouchard Labelle, a French-Canadian woman who found love with a priest thirty-three years her senior. Against all social convention, they lived, produced three children, and built a life together after fleeing their village. However, after several years together, Bouchard's husband ultimately chose to return to the priesthood, abandoning his family as a result. Through interviews and documentation, Claire Trepanier tells Bouchard's story of survival while highlighting the history of women's stature in Canada, and raising a question about the celibacy of Catholic priests.

The Indian Association of Alberta Laurie Meijer Drees.2002 The history of indigenous political action in Canada is long, hard-fought, and little told. African Voices of the Atlantic Slave Trade Anne Bailey.2005-01-02 It's an awful story. It's an awful story. Why do you want to bring this up now?--Chief Awusa of Atorkor For centuries, the story of the Atlantic slave trade has been filtered through the eyes and records of white Europeans. In this watershed book, historian Anne C. Bailey focuses on memories of the trade from the African perspective. African chiefs and other elders in an area of southeastern Ghana-once famously called the Old Slave Coast-share stories that reveal that Africans were traders as well as victims of the trade. Bailey argues that, like victims of trauma, many African societies now experience a fragmented view of their past that partially explains the blanket of silence and shame around the slave trade. Capturing scores of oral histories that were handed down through generations, Bailey finds that, although Africans were not equal partners with Europeans, even their partial involvement in the slave trade had devastating consequences on their history and identity. In this unprecedented and revelatory book, Bailey explores the delicate and fragmented nature of historical memory. From the Trade Paperback edition.

Le manuel complet du canot-camping Max Bauchet.2011 Le canot-camping est de loin l'activité de plein air la mieux adaptée au Québec, territoire pourvu d'un réseau presque infini de lacs et de rivières canotables qu'il est souvent possible de relier par des portages. Seul le canot-camping permet de partir plusieurs jours, voire plusieurs semaines, et même en famille, dans la nature sauvage. Il ne s'agit pas seulement d'un loisir mais aussi d'un exceptionnel moyen de formation pour les jeunes. Pour la famille, c'est l'occasion de se retrouver ensemble à partager un loisir sain. En plus d'être relativement bon marché, le canot-camping peut être adapté à presque toutes les conditions : entre la sortie d'une nuit à quelques kilomètres du point de départ et sans portage, et l'expédition de plusieurs semaines, une infinité de choix est offerte. On peut aussi en faire seul, en duo, en famille, entre jeunes adultes ou au sein d'un club.
