Just like with library books, when you check out an eBook from OverDrive it'll only be loaned to you for a few weeks before being automatically taken off your Kindle. You can also borrow books through their mobile app called Libby. If you want to stick to PDFs only, then you'll want to check out PDFBooksWorld. While the collection is small at only a few thousand titles, they're all free and guaranteed to be PDF-optimized. Most of them are literary classics, like The Great Gatsby, A Tale of Two Cities, Crime and Punishment, etc. Scribd offers a fascinating collection of all kinds of reading materials: presentations, textbooks, popular reading, and much more, all organized by topic. Scribd is one of the web's largest sources of published content, with literally millions of documents published every month. Use the download link to download the file to your computer. If the book opens in your web browser instead of saves to your computer, right-click the download link instead, and choose to save the file. However, Scribd is not free. It does offer a 30-day free trial, but after the trial you'll have to pay $8.99 per month to maintain a membership that grants you access to the sites entire database of books, audiobooks, and magazines. Still not a terrible deal!
