One, Two, Three Anri Laran.2018-02-26 Dear Parents!This is a unique book - a toy in your hands. The funny nursery rhymes help your child quickly and easily learn to count from one to twenty-one. The book is made as a short speech, where figures combine into a group of three numbers.Scientifically proven fact that a human being quickly and easily remembers a large volume of objects, digits, numbers, if they are grouped into several parts for one block of information. The memory is arranged in such a way that it can store in the short-term area no more than 5-7 individual blocks at the time. Plus the general thing is that information in the verses is assimilated much faster, much longer stored in short-term memory and quickly falls into a long-term area.Learn together with the child a poem verse One, two, three and enjoy learning to count.Please pay special attention!This book is not a textbook of mathematics and does not explain the meaning and quantitative characteristics of numbers. One, two, three is aimed only at rapid learning and memorizing of digits and numbers!
