After you register at Book Lending (which is free) you'll have the ability to borrow books that other individuals are loaning or to loan one of your Kindle books. You can search through the titles, browse through the list of recently loaned books, and find eBook by genre. Kindle books can only be loaned once, so if you see a title you want, get it before it's gone. AvaxHome is a pretty simple site that provides access to tons of free eBooks online under different categories. It is believed to be one of the major non-torrent file sharing sites that features an eBooks&eLearning section among many other categories. It features a massive database of free eBooks collated from across the world. Since there are thousands of pages, you need to be very well versed with the site to get the exact content you are looking for. In some cases, you may also find free books that are not public domain. Not all free books are copyright free. There are other reasons publishers may choose to make a book free, such as for a promotion or because the author/publisher just wants to get the information in front of an audience. Here's how to find free books (both public domain and otherwise) through Google Books. There are specific categories of books on the website that you can pick from, but only the Free category guarantees that you're looking at free books. They also have a Jr. Edition so you can find the latest free eBooks for your children and teens. Free-Ebooks.net is a platform for independent authors who want to avoid the traditional publishing route. You won't find Dickens and Wilde in its archives; instead, there's a huge array of new fiction, non-fiction, and even audiobooks at your fingertips, in every genre you could wish for. There are many similar sites around, but Free-Ebooks.net is our favorite, with new books added every day.
