Scribd offers a fascinating collection of all kinds of reading materials: presentations, textbooks, popular reading, and much more, all organized by topic. Scribd is one of the web's largest sources of published content, with literally millions of documents published every month. My favorite part about DigiLibraries.com is that you can click on any of the categories on the left side of the page to quickly see free Kindle books that only fall into that category. It really speeds up the work of narrowing down the books to find what I'm looking for. You can search for free Kindle books at Free-eBooks.net by browsing through fiction and non-fiction categories or by viewing a list of the best books they offer. You'll need to be a member of Free-eBooks.net to download the books, but membership is free. Project Gutenberg is one of the largest sources for free books on the web, with over 30,000 downloadable free books available in a wide variety of formats. Project Gutenberg is the oldest (and quite possibly the largest) library on the web, with literally hundreds of thousands free books available for download. The vast majority of books at Project Gutenberg are released in English, but there are other languages available. Better to search instead for a particular book title, author, or synopsis. The Advanced Search lets you narrow the results by language and file extension (e.g. PDF, EPUB, MOBI, DOC, etc). Baen is an online platform for you to read your favorite eBooks with a section consisting of limited amount of free books to download. Even though small the free section features an impressive range of fiction and non-fiction. So, to download eBooks you simply need to browse through the list of books, select the one of your choice and convert them into MOBI, RTF, EPUB and other reading formats. However, since it gets downloaded in a zip file you need a special app or use your computer to unzip the zip folder.
