You can literally eat, drink and sleep with eBooks if you visit the Project Gutenberg website. This site features a massive library hosting over 50,000 free eBooks in ePu, HTML, Kindle and other simple text formats. What's interesting is that this site is built to facilitate creation and sharing of e-books online for free, so there is no registration required and no fees. Free eBooks are available on every different subject you can think of in both fiction and non-fiction. There are free eBooks available for adults and kids, and even those tween and teenage readers. If you love to read but hate spending money on books, then this is just what you're looking for. Now you can make this easier and filter out the irrelevant results. Restrict your search results using the search tools to find only free Google eBooks. If you're looking for some fun fiction to enjoy on an Android device, Google's bookshop is worth a look, but Play Books feel like something of an afterthought compared to the well developed Play Music. Better to search instead for a particular book title, author, or synopsis. The Advanced Search lets you narrow the results by language and file extension (e.g. PDF, EPUB, MOBI, DOC, etc). Project Gutenberg is a wonderful source of free eBooks - particularly for academic work. However, it uses US copyright law, which isn't universal; some books listed as public domain might still be in copyright in other countries. RightsDirect explains the situation in more detail. After you register at Book Lending (which is free) you'll have the ability to borrow books that other individuals are loaning or to loan one of your Kindle books. You can search through the titles, browse through the list of recently loaned books, and find eBook by genre. Kindle books can only be loaned once, so if you see a title you want, get it before it's gone. If you're looking for out-of-print books in different languages and formats, check out this non-profit digital library. The Internet Archive is a great go-to if you want access to historical and academic books. A keyword search for book titles, authors, or quotes. Search by type of work published; i.e., essays, fiction, non-fiction, plays, etc. View the top books to read online as per the Read Print community. Browse the alphabetical author index. Check out the top 250 most famous authors on Read Print. For example, if you're searching for books by William Shakespeare, a simple search will turn up all his works, in a single location.
