California Real Estate Principles David L. Schalow.1998-08 This California-specific text is useful for both consumers and prospective agents - to provide the basics of real estate to consumers interested in buying or selling their own real estate, to teach students in real estate classes the basics of the industry, or to help potential real estate salespersons or brokers complete the required class in preparation for the state licence examination. It is unique in its focus on the interests of the consumer. It is organized so that high-interest career topics (compensation, agency) precede material on law and financing. Also includes sample tests to provide practice for the California Real Estate Exam.

California Residential Foreclosures Fred Crane, Connor P. Wallmark, Giang Hoang.2008-04 If you are interested in learning the mechanics of buying and selling homes in foreclosure from the experts, then this book is for you. California Residential Foreclosures takes you beyond the foreclosure hype and into the practical mechanics and legal framework required to successfully execute a sale or purchase of distressed residential property. Buyers and sellers will learn how to confidently complete transactions with simple step-by-step examples while gaining a comprehensive understanding of the pitfalls and prevailing laws that govern such transactions. Furthermore, this book will arm the equity purchase (EP) investor with the expertise needed to apply all EP rules, while personally handling the negotiations and documentation necessary to contract for, escrow and acquire a home during the period the property is in foreclosure. Real estate licensees and lawyers will find a comprehensive and complete treatment of the subject matter. Whether you act as an agent to a transaction or as an attorney advisor to a client, this book provides the most current laws and covers all the relevant statutory provisions that control interactions between sellers-in-foreclosure and investors. As this book goes to print, pending legislation may even require brokers representing EP investors to be bonded. Filled with scores of case examples that present the subject matter in an easy to understand, hands-on approach, California Residential Foreclosures will arm homeowners, investors, licensees and attorneys with the tools necessary to handle all aspects of the sale and acquisition of residential property in foreclosure.

Real Estate Contract Form and Disclosure Forms and Pamphlets for the Purchase and Sale of California Residences Trent Jason.2015-07-01 This 496-page book allows the average homeowner or home buyer to conduct a real estate transaction in California. It guides both the prospective buyer and the seller in the necessary steps. If properly completed, the contract in this book will ensure all of the terms and conditions of the transaction are complete, accurate, and explanatory. Using the provided forms, both parties can be assured their interests are protected and they are complying with all the legal requirements. This book also provides the seller with each and every seller-completed disclosure form required for the sale of a property of one to four residential units. The only disclosure forms omitted are the ones that must be completed by a third party certified to provide the natural hazards disclosures, environmental disclosures, and real property tax liability disclosures.
