The legality of Library Genesis has been in question since 2015 because it allegedly grants access to pirated copies of books and paywalled articles, but the site remains standing and open to the public. The eReader Cafe has listings every day for free Kindle books and a few bargain books. Daily email subscriptions and social media profiles are also available if you don't want to check their site every day. Better to search instead for a particular book title, author, or synopsis. The Advanced Search lets you narrow the results by language and file extension (e.g. PDF, EPUB, MOBI, DOC, etc). Social media pages help you find new eBooks from BookGoodies, but they also have an email service that will send the free Kindle books to you every day. Similar to PDF Books World, Feedbooks allows those that sign up for an account to download a multitude of free e-books that have become accessible via public domain, and therefore cost you nothing to access. Just make sure that when you're on Feedbooks' site you head to the "Public Domain" tab to avoid its collection of "premium" books only available for purchase. There are specific categories of books on the website that you can pick from, but only the Free category guarantees that you're looking at free books. They also have a Jr. Edition so you can find the latest free eBooks for your children and teens. DigiLibraries.com gathers up free Kindle books from independent authors and publishers. You can download these free Kindle books directly from their website. Most free books on Google Play are new titles that the author has self-published via the platform, and some classics are conspicuous by their absence; there's no free edition of Shakespeare's complete works, for example. Kindle Buffet from Weberbooks.com is updated each day with the best of the best free Kindle books available from Amazon. Each day's list of new free Kindle books includes a top recommendation with an author profile and then is followed by more free books that include the genre, title, author, and synopsis.
