EXPORT - IMPORT AND LOGISTICS MANAGEMENT USHA KIRAN RAI.2010-01-08 This textbook, now in its Second Edition, continues to provide an easy and accessible introduction to the import-export and logistics management. With the globalization, international trade procedures and documentation have undergone remarkable changes over the last decade or so. This process of change got accelerated after the enactment of the Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999. This, coupled with the thrust given to the liberalization process by the Government, has brought to fore the importance of export procedures and documentation and international logistics management. This comprehensive and revised book includes a new chapter on Foreign Exchange Risk Management and elaborates the procedures for availing different export incentives. Divided into eight parts, the text discusses the export-import environment, the procedures for obtaining finance by the exporter, convertibility of rupee, liberalization and its impact, the foreign exchange market, export-import procedures and documentation. Finally, the book also dwells upon the essentials of imports and logistics management including distribution channels and international marketing. This book, dealing with the principles and practice of the management of exports, imports and logistics, should be of a great benefit to the postgraduate students of business management (MBA), and international business management (MIB). Besides, the book would prove to be useful as a handy reference for exporters, importers, managers and entrepreneurs.

Service Tax of India Shubham Sinha. This is book is a set of BARE ACT of service tax rules as declared by govt. authorities in India and is valid throughout the territories of India. Service tax is a tax levied by Central Government of India on services provided or to be provided excluding services covered under negative list and considering the Place of Provision of Services Rules, 2012 and collected as per Point of Taxation Rules, 2011 from the person liable to pay service tax. Person liable to pay service tax is governed by Service Tax Rules, 1994 he may be service provider or service receiver or any other person made so liable. Few services are presently exempt in public interest via Mega Exemption Notification 25/2012-ST as amended up to date & few services are charged service tax at abated rate as per Notification No. 26/2012-ST as amended up to date. Presently from 1 June 2015, service tax rate has been increased to consolidated rate @ 14% of value of services provided or to be provided. The service tax rate now is consolidated rate as education cess & secondary higher education cess are subsumed with 2% of Swachh Bharat Cess(0.50%) has been notified by the Government. Dr. Raja Chelliah Committee on tax reforms recommended the introduction of service tax. Service tax had been first levied at a rate of five per cent flat from 1 July 1994 till 13 May 2003, at the rate of eight percent flat w.e.f 1 plus an education cess of 2% thereon w.e.f 10 September 2004 on the services provided by service providers. The rate of service tax was enhanced to 12% by Finance Act, 2006 w.e.f 18.4.2006. Finance Act, 2007 has imposed a new secondary and higher education cess of one percent on the service tax w.e.f 11.5.2007, increasing the total education cess to three percent and a total levy of 12.36 percent. The revenue from the service tax to the Government of India have shown a steady rise since its inception in 1994. The tax collections have grown substantially since 1994-95 i.e. from 410 crore (US$61 million) in 1994-95 to 132518 crore (US$20 billion) in 2012-13. The total number of Taxable services also increased from 3 in 1994 to 119 in 2012. However, from 1 July 2012 the concept of taxation on services was changed from a 'Selected service approach' to a 'Negative List regime'. This changed the taxation system of services from tax on some Selected services to tax being levied on the every service other than services mentioned in Negative list.

Export and Import Management Aseem Kumar.2005 Export and Import Management is a well researched student friendly book that proposes to fill the gap between theory and practice for young managers aspiring for challenging positions in international business. The book is a pioneering effort in this area where only manuals or replicas of manuals have ruled for years. Written in essentially textbook fashion, the book presents interesting forays into the exciting world of export and import. The book is divided into 16 comprehensive chapters that take the reader through a sequential journey in export-import management. The students will be exposed to conceptual framework, procedural detail and practical aspects of international transactions. Interesting examples, cases and illustrations with reference to details make it full of life.Each chapter lists its objectives in the beginning and presents practical exercises at the end. The students will be able to relate their progress to the listed goals easily. Practical exercises will encourage them to go to the field as well as search the internet for more information.The unique feature of the book is a complimentary CD that contains all the relevant export-import forms for practical learning.The book has been planned keeping in view the needs of the students of MBA/PGDM/PGDBM/MIB and other international business courses at PG/UG level. It will also prove to be a good resource for faculty members.

e-Invoice the Encyclopedia for Indian GST CMA Bhogavalli Mallikarjuna Gupta.2020-11-20 e-Invoicing is new to Indian Tax Payers, but it is implemented in 100+ countries across the globe and has still not matured. e-Invoicing is implemented in all the countries in a phased manner, and India is also following the same. In India, e-Invoicing will be rolled out from 1st Oct 2020, as one of the anti-tax evasion measures for taxpayers who are having a turnover above Rs 500 crores in a financial year. Similar to the rollout of GST, where the taxpayers have to change the business process for effective implementation, the rollout of e-Invoice also involves changes in the business process, and the book covers the same. It also talks about the implementation in some of the countries, along with the benefits of e-Invoice to the taxpayers and the nation as a whole. The book provides a unique combination, as it talks about the provisions of the e-Invoice and the impact on the business and interpretation of provisions related to the same and also the API architecture and schema of Invoice Reference Number. The books also explains the reader on what is an e-Invoice? What is IRN? How it is generated? What is QR code in e-Invoicing etc., The book also discusses the implementation process the corporates have to adopt for the rollout and also various methods of implementing the e-Invoice in organizations. It also talks about the best methods of implementing the same, along with validations to be incorporated in the system. e-Invoice the Encyclopedia for Indian GST covers all the aspects of the e-Invoicing from the functional, technical and legal aspects.
