It's disappointing that there's no convenient menu that lets you just browse freebies. Instead, you have to search for your preferred genre, plus the word 'free' (free science fiction, or free history, for example). It works well enough once you know about it, but it's not immediately obvious. As of this writing, Gutenberg has over 57,000 free ebooks on offer. They are available for download in EPUB and MOBI formats (some are only available in one of the two), and they can be read online in HTML format. If you want to stick to PDFs only, then you'll want to check out PDFBooksWorld. While the collection is small at only a few thousand titles, they're all free and guaranteed to be PDF-optimized. Most of them are literary classics, like The Great Gatsby, A Tale of Two Cities, Crime and Punishment, etc. If your library doesn't have a subscription to OverDrive or you're looking for some more free Kindle books, then Book Lending is a similar service where you can borrow and lend books for your Kindle without going through a library. You can literally eat, drink and sleep with eBooks if you visit the Project Gutenberg website. This site features a massive library hosting over 50,000 free eBooks in ePu, HTML, Kindle and other simple text formats. What's interesting is that this site is built to facilitate creation and sharing of e-books online for free, so there is no registration required and no fees. Besides being able to read most types of ebook files, you can also use this app to get free Kindle books from the Amazon store. The eReader Cafe has listings every day for free Kindle books and a few bargain books. Daily email subscriptions and social media profiles are also available if you don't want to check their site every day. Where to Get Free eBooks Think of this: When you have titles that you would like to display at one of the conferences we cover or have an author nipping at your heels, but you simply cannot justify the cost of purchasing your own booth, give us a call. We can be the solution.
