The International Chinese Language Education Standards for Chinese Proficiency Levels were released on March 31, 2021 and will be formally implemented on July 1, 2021. Within just two months of the release, I became the first person in the world to compile a vocabulary list with the best possible English. This was made possible thanks to the 10 years of effort I put into building my database, which includes over 500,000 vocabulary words that served as the foundation for editing my textbooks. Students who have used my vocabulary list have called it life-saving for their exams. My book provides a quick revision guide for those preparing for exams, so be sure to grab a copy! We appreciate your support as we strive to create better content for you. It has taken us years of hard work to edit this book, so please respect our copyrights.

Master Chinese Characters Clinton Sheppard.2020-09-09 The exercises in this book will help you master more than 100 Chinese characters (and more than 200 words) including all those that you would need to know in order to achieve level 1 proficiency on the 四级考试 (YCT). The lessons build your vocabulary one character at a time and include practice sentences and phrases that use a variety of grammar patterns. For example: 一 一个 (of something) 一个人 One person. 一个 A/One small person. 十一个 Eleven small people. 十一个 Eleven small women. 十一个 Eleven women are very small. 二十一个 Twenty-one women are very small. And so on. As each new character is introduced you will be shown how it is written (the stroke order), the traditional (long) form if any, and the separable components of that character. This will help you learn to decompose, recognize, and remember the characters. Finally, the activity sections and reading comprehension exercises will help you remember the meanings of the characters and vocabulary through spaced repetition. When you finish this book you will know a little more than 26 percent of the characters you will encounter in any given text on average.
