Qui a Obstrué la Cascade? Wauthier De Mahieu.2009-06-18 This book, which is in French, derives from a detailed empirical study of the Komo, a population of some 60,000 hunter-gatherers in Zaire. Dr de Mahieu builds a new theory of ritual practice on to his description and analysis of circumcision rituals among the Komo, and draws important comparisons between the significance of these rituals to the actual participants and to wider Komo society and beliefs.

Le Sens de la Vie, étude de psychologie individuelle Alfred Adler.2024-04-13 Le Sens de la Vie d'Alfred Adler est un ouvrage incontournable dans le domaine de la psychologie, et plus particulièrement de la psychologie individuelle. Ce livre de développement personnel explore les motivations profondes qui guident nos actions et donnent un sens à notre existence, offrant des clés précieuses pour l'épanouissement personnel et la connaissance de soi. Alfred Adler, éminent psychologue et théoricien influent, expose sa théorie révolutionnaire sur la psyché humaine. À travers des études de cas et des analyses approfondies, il montre comment nos expériences d'enfance, en particulier les sentiments d'infériorité, façonnent notre style de vie et nos mécanismes de compensation à l'âge adulte. Ce livre de psychanalyse aborde des thèmes fondamentaux tels que le complexe d'infériorité, la volonté de puissance et les stratégies compensatoires que nous déployons inconsciemment pour surmonter nos fragilités et atteindre nos objectifs. Adler examine également les origines des névroses, qu'il relie à des sentiments d'infériorité non résolus, offrant ainsi une perspective éclairante sur la santé mentale et le bien-être psychologique. Le Sens de la Vie explore les dynamiques familiales et sociales qui influencent le développement de la personnalité, apportant des insights précieux pour les thérapeutes, les étudiants en psychologie et toute personne cherchant à approfondir sa compréhension des relations humaines. Cet ouvrage de psychologie humaniste est une référence incontournable pour tous ceux qui s'intéressent à la psychologie, à la philosophie, à la développement personnel et à la quête de sens. Les enseignements visionnaires d'Alfred Adler, précurseur de la psychologie moderne, offrent une approche unique et accessible pour mieux se comprendre soi-même et les autres. Le Sens de la Vie est un livre intemporel qui a influencé de nombreux penseurs et praticiens. Il constitue une introduction essentielle à la pensée d'Alfred Adler et à sa contribution majeure au domaine de la psychologie. Hermeneutic Rationality Maria Luísa Portocarrero,Luis António Umbelino,Andrzej Wiercinski.2012 The problem of the limits of reason is by no means a privileged subject of an academic discourse. By reducing reality to what can be conceived of within the paradigms of the scientific laboratory, manipulative despotism, which positivistic notion of objectivism has established, creates in a human being a unilateral conscience of the world and of oneself; a conscience that dominates today our understanding of existence in its manifold senses of Being and the world we live in. This way of thinking, based on a powerful and skillful technique aimed at controlling human life in all its dimensions, intends to impose this limiting positivistic horizon on human beings in the name of Liberte, Egalite, and Fraternalite. Hermeneutic rationality resists the claims of modern science and promotes the culture of hospitality toward the world as it shows itself in its complexity. Maria Luisa Portocarrero, Universidade de Coimbra, Portugal, Professor of Philosophy, specializing in the phenomenological hermeneutics of Hans-Georg Gadamer and Paul Ricoeur. Luis Antonio Umbelino, Universidade de Coimbra, Portugal, Professor of Philosophy and Artistic Studies. Andrzej Wiercinski, Albert-Ludwigs-Universitat Freiburg, Germany, Professor of Philosophy of Religion, specializing in Practical Philosophy/Philosophical Hermeneutics.

Petit almanach du sens de la vie Pierre-Henri Tavoillot.2013-03-20 Les étapes de la vie, jadis bien définies, sont aujourd'hui devenues confuses, opaques et désordonnées. Peut-on espérer y remettre un peu de (bon) sens ? C'est le défi de ce livre, élaboré à partir des chroniques que l'auteur a rédigées pour Philosophie Magazine durant trois ans. Il s'agit de penser, étape par étape, la manière dont se construit aujourd'hui une vie d'individu — si possible réussie — jusqu'à son terme inéluctable, avec l'exigence d'être soi-même à tout âge. Guidé par les grandes philosophies du passé, on y trouvera l'esquisse d'une sagesse des passages : pourquoi naître, grandir, mûrir, vieillir, et finalement ... mourir ?

The Origins of Life Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka.2012-12-06 Understanding life through its origins reveals the groundwork underlying the differentiations of its autonomous generative matrixes. Following the primogenital matrix of generation, the three generative matrixes of the specifically human sense of life establish humanness within the creative human condition as the existential sphere of sharing-in-life.

Jean Delville Brendan Cole.2014-11-10 This book is the first full-length study of the art and writings of Jean Delville. As a member of the younger generation that emerged during the end of the nineteenth century, he was a dynamic leader of a group of avant-garde artists who sought to establish a new school of Idealist Art in Belgium. He was one of the most talented painters of his generation, producing a vast body of works that, in both scale and technical accomplishment, is unsurpassed amongst his contemporaries. In his extensive writings in contemporary journals and books, he pursued a singular vision for the purpose of art to serve as a vehicle for social change, as well as to inspire individuals to be drawn to a higher, spiritual reality. Delville's thinking is heavily indebted to the hermetic and esoteric philosophy that was widely popular at the time, and his paintings, poetry and writings reformulate the main tenets of this tradition in a contemporary context. In this regard, his aesthetic and artistic goals are similar, if not identical, to those found in the writings and art of Kandinsky and Mondrian during the early twentieth century.

Phenomenology of Space and Time Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka.2014-04-26 This book celebrates the investigative power of phenomenology to explore the phenomenological sense of space and time in conjunction with the phenomenology of intentionality, the invisible, the sacred, and the mystical. It examines the course of life through its ontopoietic genesis, opening the cosmic sphere to logos. The work also explores, on the one hand, the intellectual drive to locate our cosmic position in the universe and, on the other, the pull toward the infinite. It intertwines science and its grounding principles with imagination in order to make sense of the infinite. This work is the first of a two-part work that contains papers presented at the 62nd International Congress of Phenomenology, The Forces of the Cosmos and the Ontopoietic Genesis of Life, held in Paris, France, August 2012. It features the work of scholars in such diverse disciplines as biology, anthropology, pedagogy, and psychology who philosophically investigate the cosmic origins of beingness. Coverage in this first part includes: Toward a New Enlightenment: Metaphysics as Philosophy of Life, Transformation in Phenomenology: Husserl and Tymieniecka, Biologically Organized Quantum Vacuum and the Cosmic Origin of Cellular Life, Plotinus Enneads and Self-Creation, The Creative Potential of Humor, Transcendental Morphology - A Phenomenological Interpretation of Human and Non-Human Cosmos, and Cognition and Emotion: From Dichotomy to Ambiguity.

Transcendentalism Overturned Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka.2011-04-02 This collection offers a critical assessment of transcendentalism, the understanding of consciousness, absolutized as a system of a priori laws of the mind, that was advanced by Kant and Husserl. As these studies show, transcendentalism critically informed 20th Century phenomenological investigation into such issues as temporality, historicity, imagination, objectivity and subjectivity, freedom, ethical judgment, work, praxis. Advances in science have now provoked a questioning of the absolute prerogatives of consciousness. Transcendentalism is challenged by empirical reductionism. And recognition of the role the celestial sphere plays in life on planet earth suggests that a radical shift of philosophy's center of gravity be made away from absolute consciousness and toward the transcendental forces at play in the architectonics of the cosmos.

La science et le monde moderne d'Alfred North Whitehead? François Beets,Michel Dupuis,Michel Weber.2013-05-02 The second international Chromatiques whiteheadiennes conference was devoted exclusively to the exegesis and contextualization of Whitehead's Science and the Modern World (1925). In order to elucidate the meaning and significance of this epoch-making work, the Proceedings are designed to form companion volume. With one paper devoted to each of its thirteen chapters, the Proceedings aim, on the one hand, to identify the specific contribution of each chapter to Whitehead's own research program - that is to say, to put its categories into perspective by means of an internal analysis- and, on the other hand, to identify its global impact in the history of ideas.

European Yearbook / Annuaire Européen 1973 Council of Europe/Conseil de L'Europe.1975-09-01 The European Yearbook promotes the scientific study of nineteen European supranational organisations and the OECD. The series offers a detailed survey of the history, structure and yearly activities of each organisation and an up-to-date overview of the member states of each organisation. This special anniversary volume celebrates 60 years of publication of the Yearbook, and its contents differs from that of the regular volumes therefore. It offers a selection of the most important articles, dealing with European cooperation and integration, to appear in the Yearbook during its 60 years of publication. These are of particular interest not only because they provide a unique historical snapshot of the many successes (and occasional failures) in the field of European integration but also because they discuss the ideals and aims that lay behind these efforts, many of which still resonate today as Europe confronts questions about its political destiny and ideal shape. This volume contains articles in English and French.

Phenomenology and the Human Positioning in the Cosmos Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka.2012-10-24 The classic conception of human transcendental consciousness assumes its self-supporting existential status within the horizon of life-world, nature and earth. Yet this assumed absoluteness does not entail the nature of its powers, neither their constitutive force. This latter call for an existential source reaching beyond the generative life-world network. Transcendental consciousness, having lost its absolute status (its point of reference) it is the role of the logos to lay down the harmonious positioning in the cosmic sphere of the all, establishing an original foundation of phenomenology in the primogenital onto-poiesis of life.

La Vie d'Etienne le Jeune par Étienne le Diacre Marie-France Auzépy.2017-07-05 The Life of Stephen the Younger is one of the rare sources for Byzantium in the 'Dark Ages' and one of the key witnesses to the history of Iconoclasm. This book presents a new edition of the text, together with a French translation and commentary, and an important introduction. Stephen was a hermit, killed in 765 at the order of the emperor Constantine V; his Life was written in 809, some forty years after the 7th Ecumenical Council, Nicaea II, at which Orthodoxy was affirmed. Professor Auzépy shows how the Life reflects the politics of the era, both those of the patriarchate on which the author depended, and of the female monastery near which Stephen had lived, and transforms the probable victim of a failed political plot into a Christ-like figure martyred by a diabolic emperor. La Vie d'Etienne le Jeune est une des rares sources sur l'histoire de Byzance durant le Haut Moyen-Age et un témoignage majeur de la querelle iconoclaste. Cet ouvrage, comprenant une importante introduction, présente une nouvelle édition du texte, accompagnée d'une traduction française annotée. Etienne est un ermite qui fut assassiné en 765 sur l'ordre de l'empereur Constantin V. Sa Vie fut écrite en 809, une quarantaine d'années après le septième concile œcuménique de Nicée II, au cours duquel fut affirmé l'Orthodoxie. Le professeur Auzépy démontre comment la Vie reflète les enjeux politiques de cette époque, ceux du patriarcat dont l'auteur dépendait comme ceux du monastère de femmes auprès duquel Etienne a vécu, et comment la Vie transforme son héros, probablement mis à mort dans le cadre d'un complot, en une figure de saint moine martyrisé par un empereur diabolique. Winner of the Prix Charles Diehl de l'Académie des Inscriptions et Belles-Lettres 1999.

Droits des Personnes Agées et Droits des Personnes Handicapées Pascal Touoyem.2023-10-22 Cette publication est certainement la toute première grande synthèse thématique et critique sur la condition des personnes socialement vulnérables (PSV) en Afrique. Une excellente brochette de 40 experts et Institutions de différents pays du continent déploie un effort d'intelligibilité de ce phénomène devenu préoccupant. à travers un inventaire analytique complexe. rétrospectif. Tactuel. actuel, chiffré. ponctuel prospectif et relativement exhaustif. Les différentes contributions sont assorties des recommandations fortes qui interpellent, pour leur application les détenteurs d'enjeu dans une démarche de co-construction pour une citoyenneté de transformation active C'est un document de plaidoyer/réquisitoire et de lobbying en faveur de l'aménagement, de la protection et de l'amélioration des conditions sociales des personnes âgées et des personnes handicapées en Afrique autant en matière de santé, d'alimentation, de logement. d'environnement, de protection sociale. que de maintien de revenu. d'emploi et d'enseignement. eu égard à l'augmentation croissante de leurs effets en valeur relative et absolue. la question des personnes socialement vulnérables est ainsi mise en avant-garde des préoccupations politico-sociales et scientifiques importantes voir permanentes. Elle fait l'objet d'investigations et de réflexions récurrentes au sein du mécanisme social de l'Union Africaine au sein du groupe de travail sur les personnes âgées et les personnes handicapées de la Commission Africaine des Droits de l'Homme et des Peuples. L'assignation initiale et originelle étant de construire des véhicules juridiques psychologiques, socio-anthropologiques et politiques afin d'amorcer un changement positif et une protection durable des personnes. ainsi que des protocoles coutumiers pour leur valorisation dans les cultures et traditions africaines This publication is certainly the first major thematic and critical synthesis on the condition of socially vulnerable persons (PSV) in Africa. An excellent line-up of 40 experts and institutions from different countries of the continent is making an effort to understand this phenomenon, which has become worrying, through a complex, retrospective, factual, current, quantified, punctual, prospective and relatively exhaustive analytical inventory. The various contributions are accompanied by strong recommendations that challenge the holders of issues for their application in a process of co-construction for an active citizenship of transformation. It is a document of advocacy/indictment and lobbying in favor of the development, protection and improvement of the social conditions of the elderly and persons with disabilities in Africa in terms of health, food, housing, environment, social protection, income maintenance, employment and education, given their increasing numbers in relative and absolute terms. The issue of socially vulnerable people is thus brought to the forefront of important, if not permanent, political-social and scientific concerns. It is the subject of recurrent investigations and reflections within the special mechanism of the African Union, the Working Group on Elderly Persons and Persons with Disabilities of the African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights. The initial assignment is to build legal, psychological, socio-anthropological and political vehicles in order to initiate positive change and sustainable protection of VHPs, as well as customary protocols for their valorization in African cultures and traditions.

Language, Meaning, Interpretation Guttorm Fløistad.2005-12-07 Philosophy of logic and language, and of meaning and communication are central to this volume. The discussion of these issues involves analytical approaches, including semantics and semiotics, philosophy of science, mathematical logic, phenomenology, hermeneutics and some aspects of philosophical anthropology and aesthetics. Philosophy of the Absolute also belongs to this broad repertoire of philosophical problems and disciplines. A number of problems and viewpoints derive from the metaphysical system; any relativistic view on ethical values, for instance, makes sense in relation to some absolute. Metaphysical system building may have come to an end, but after all it belongs to philosophy to remind us of our past.
