Here is an updated version of the $domain website which many of our East European book trade customers have been using for some time now, more or less regularly. We have just introduced certain upgrades and changes which should be interesting for you. Please remember that our website does not replace publisher websites, there would be no point in duplicating the information. Our idea is to present you with tools that might be useful in your work with individual, institutional and corporate customers. Many of the features have been introduced at specific requests from some of you. Others are still at preparatory stage and will be implemented soon. Now you can make this easier and filter out the irrelevant results. Restrict your search results using the search tools to find only free Google eBooks. We now offer a wide range of services for both traditionally and self-published authors. What we offer. Newsletter Promo. Promote your discounted or free book. FeedBooks provides you with public domain books that feature popular classic novels by famous authors like, Agatha Christie, and Arthur Conan Doyle. The site allows you to download texts almost in all major formats such as, EPUB, MOBI and PDF. The site does not require you to register and hence, you can download books directly from the categories mentioned on the left menu. The best part is that FeedBooks is a fast website and easy to navigate. If you're having a hard time finding a good children's book amidst the many free classics available online, you might want to check out the International Digital Children's Library, where you can find award-winning books that range in length and reading levels. There's also a wide selection of languages available, with everything from English to Farsi. Just like with library books, when you check out an eBook from OverDrive it'll only be loaned to you for a few weeks before being automatically taken off your Kindle. You can also borrow books through their mobile app called Libby. With a collection of more than 45,000 free e-books, Project Gutenberg is a volunteer effort to create and share e-books online.
