Conversations With The Dead David Gans.2009-04-27 A collection of interviews—some vintage, some recent, and some brand-new—Conversations with the Dead is the first (and only) book in which the Grateful Dead speak in their own words about their music and their lives. David Gans, a self-professed Deadhead and host of The Grateful Dead Hour, asked Jerry Garcia, Bob Weir, and the rest of the band the questions their fans would have asked if given the chance. And Gans reaches far beyond the musicians, talking with such often-overlooked key players as the recording engineer, sound man, and road crew—those who have had the coveted opportunity to witness the Dead's decades of music-making. This updated and expanded edition includes a rare, never-before-published interview with Seastones composer Ned Lagin and a new introduction by the author. With a readable combination of intensity, inquisitiveness, and candor, Gans has created an unprecedented portrait of a band who, after more than thirty years of music-making, has earned a unique place in American culture.

The Good Indian's Guide to Queue-jumping V. Raghunathan.2016-07-10 Lessons in Getting Ahead A wise man once said that half of life is showing up -- and the other half is waiting in line. In a nation of a billion people, there's no escaping queues. We find ourselves in one every day -- whether to board a flight, for a darshan at Tirupati or, if we are less fortunate, to fetch water from municipal taps. We no longer wait for years for a Fiat car or a rotary-dial phone, but there are still queues that may last days, like those for school admissions. And then there are the virtual ones at call centres in which there's no knowing when we will make contact with a human. So if you can't escape 'em, can you beat 'em? Mercifully, yes. And, if so, how can you jump queues better? Which excuse works like a charm? How should you backtrack if someone objects? Does it help to make eye contact? Are we generally accommodating of queue-jumpers and why? More importantly, what does queue-jumping say about us as a people? Does it mean we lack a sense of fairness and basic concern for others? These are questions of everyday survival that bestselling author V. Raghunathan first threw up in Games Indians Play and now takes up at length in The Good Indian's Guide to Queue-jumping.

Confabulationes tironum litterariorum Hermannus Schottennius.2007 The humanist Hermann Schotten, or Hermannus Schottennius Hesus (c. 1503-1546), student, schoolmaster, and university lecturer in Cologne, was the author of a number of works on humanist pedagogy. His Confabulationes tironum litterariorum of 1525, a collection of Latin dialogues designed to help schoolboys master Classical Latin conversation, was written in admiring imitation of the colloquies of Erasmus. But Schotten had his own distinctive style: a natural ear for dialogue, and a sympathetic understanding of the schoolboy world. As a result, he produced one of the liveliest pedagogical works of the century and a vivid and valuable cultural document of life in the early modern metropolis of Cologne. This critical edition of the Confabulationes, the first since the sixteenth century, makes this one-time best-seller available and comprehensible to modern readers. It presents the Latin text, a full English translation, and extensive notes on the language and on Schotten's many literary and cultural allusions, accompanied by a detailed investigation of the early printing history of the collection.

The 100 Top Inspirational Anecdotes and Stories Meir Liraz. A businessman was highly critical of his competitors' storefront windows. Why, they are the dirtiest windows in town, he claimed. Fellow business people grew tired of the man's continual criticism and nitpicking comments about the windows. One day over coffee, the businessman carried the subject just too far. Before leaving, a fellow store owner suggested the man get his own windows washed. He followed the advice, and the next day at coffee, he exclaimed, I can't believe it. As soon as I washed my windows, my competitor must have cleaned his too. You should see them shine. Confucius once declared, Don't complain about the snow on your neighbor's roof when your own doorstep is unclean. Wise men and philosophers throughout the ages have disagreed on many things, but many are in unanimous agreement on one point: We become what we think about. Ralph Waldo Emerson said, A man is what he thinks about all day long. The Roman emperor Marcus Aurelius put it this way: A man's life is what his thoughts make of it. In the Bible we find: As a man thinks in his heart, so is he. One Sunday afternoon, a cranky grandfather was visiting his family. As he lay down to take a nap, his grandson decided to have a little fun by putting Limburger cheese on Grandfather's mustache. Soon, grandpa awoke with a snort and charged out of the bedroom saying, This room stinks. Through the house he went, finding every room smelling the same. Desperately he made his way outside only to find that the whole world stinks! So it is when we fill our minds with negativism. Everything we experience and everybody we encounter will carry the scent we hold in our mind. For this book we scanned hundreds of anecdotes, success stories and bits of wisdom to bring you this collection of the top 100 inspiring anecdotes and stories. We find these witty, inspiring, amusing, eye-opening and spirit-soothing. We hope you'll enjoy reading them as much as we enjoyed putting them together.

The difficult terrain made early settlements nearly impossible and logging unprofitable. Unique rock formations, from Table Rock to the Chimneys, and miles of trails attract thousands of climbers, hikers and adventure seekers each year. In this revised edition, author Christopher Blake draws on American colonial reports, travel writings, diaries, fiction and numerous archival records to weave a narrative fabric of an American treasure.

ManyBooks is a nifty little site that's been around for over a decade. Its purpose is to curate and provide a library of free and discounted fiction ebooks for people to download and enjoy. Once you find something you're interested in, click on the book title and you'll be taken to that book's specific page. You can choose to read chapters within your browser (easiest) or print pages out for later. Ebooks and Text Archives: From the Internet Archive; a library of fiction, popular books, children's books, historical texts and academic books. The free books on this site span every possible interest. Open Library is a free Kindle book downloading and lending service that has well over 1 million eBook titles available. They seem to specialize in classic literature and you can search by keyword or browse by subjects, authors, and genre. If your library doesn't have a subscription to OverDrive or you're looking for some more free Kindle books, then Book Lending is a similar service where you can borrow and lend books for your Kindle without going through a library. Most free books on Google Play are new titles that the author has self-published via the platform, and some classics are conspicuous by their absence; there's no free edition of Shakespeare's complete works, for example. As archive means, you can retrieve books from the Internet Archive that are no longer available elsewhere. This is a not for profit online library that allows you to download free eBooks from its online library. It is basically a search engine for that lets you search from more than 466 billion pages on the internet for the obsolete books for free, especially for historical and academic books. The Open Library has more than one million free e-books available. This library catalog is an open online project of Internet Archive, and allows users to contribute books. You can easily search by the title, author, and subject. Note that some of the "free" ebooks listed on Centsless Books are only free if you're part of Kindle Unlimited, which may not be worth the money.
