Free-Ebooks.net is a platform for independent authors who want to avoid the traditional publishing route. You won't find Dickens and Wilde in its archives; instead, there's a huge array of new fiction, non-fiction, and even audiobooks at your fingertips, in every genre you could wish for. There are many similar sites around, but Free-Ebooks.net is our favorite, with new books added every day. Looking for a new way to enjoy your ebooks? Take a look at our guide to the best free ebook readers. If you are a book buff and are looking for legal material to read, GetFreeEBooks is the right destination for you. It gives you access to its large database of free eBooks that range from education & learning, computers & internet, business and fiction to novels and much more. That's not all as you can read a lot of related articles on the website as well. DailyCheapReads.com has daily posts on the latest Kindle book deals available for download at Amazon, and will sometimes post free books. You can literally eat, drink and sleep with eBooks if you visit the Project Gutenberg website. This site features a massive library hosting over 50,000 free eBooks in ePu, HTML, Kindle and other simple text formats. What's interesting is that this site is built to facilitate creation and sharing of e-books online for free, so there is no registration required and no fees. Much of its collection was seeded by Project Gutenberg back in the mid-2000s, but has since taken on an identity of its own with the addition of thousands of self-published works that have been made available at no charge. Since Centsless Books tracks free ebooks available on Amazon, there may be times when there is nothing listed. If that happens, try again in a few days. Read Print is an online library where you can find thousands of free books to read. The books are classics or Creative Commons licensed and include everything from nonfiction and essays to fiction, plays, and poetry. Free registration at Read Print gives you the ability to track what you've read and what you would like to read, write reviews of books you have read, add books to your favorites, and to join online book clubs or discussion lists to discuss great works of literature. The first step is to go to make sure you're logged into your Google Account and go to Google Books at books.google.com.
