Studies in the Contract Laws of Asia Mindy Chen-Wishart, Alexander Loke, Burton Ong.2016-02-11 Studies in the Contract Laws of Asia provides an authoritative account of the contract law regimes of selected Asian jurisdictions, including the major centres of commerce where until now, limited critical commentaries have been available in the English language. In this new six part series of scholarly essays from leading scholars and commentators, each volume will offer an insider's perspective into specific areas of contract law, including: remedies, formation, parties, contents, vitiating factors, change of circumstances, illegality, and public policy, and will explore how these diverse jurisdictions address common problems encountered in contractual disputes. Concluding each volume will be a closing discussion of the convergences and divergences throughout each across the jurisdictions, and comparisons with European jurisdictions from which Asians well as an overview of the common themes found throughout each jurisdiction .contract law derive. Volume I of this series examines the remedies for breach of contract in the laws of China, India, Japan, Korea, Taiwan, Singapore, Malaysia, Hong Kong, Korea, and Thailand. Specifically, it addresses the readiness of each legal system in their action to insist that parties perform their obligations; the methods of enforcing the parties' agreed remedies for breach; and the ways in which monetary compensation are awarded. Each jurisdiction is discussed over two chapters; the first chapter will examine the performance remedies and agreed remedies, while the second explores the monetary remedies. A concluding chapter offers a comparative overview.

English Grammar & Composition Rajendra Pal, Prem Lata Suri.2022-04-25 The book is divided into three parts comprised of overall 35 chapters. Part one contains Grammar, part two - Aids to Vocabulary, and part three - Writing Skills. • The section dealing with Grammar is in double color. The points given in pink color suggest importance or emphasis, so they need attention and will help you to understand quickly and easily. These points are further highlighted with arrows. • Text printed on-screen suggests points likely to misunderstand. Sometimes they explain subtle distinctions between two apparently similar points. • Grammar items are discussed very systematically - one at a time. Plentiful illustrations are followed by carefully designed exercises. • There is an exhaustive section dealing exclusively with Multiple choice questions covering all the areas of Grammar as well as Vocabulary. It will help to get familiar with the latest evaluation pattern. • The chapter on vocabulary is adequate and it has been kept within manageable proportions. • The chapter on Precis writing under the section Writing Skills contains a large number of solved examples, which fully explain how to analyze a passage, how to prepare a rough draft and then turn out a good readable and adequate final precis. They are followed by passages provided with aids to vocabulary and detailed outlines. The passages selected for precis writing cover a wide range of interests and have been carefully graded. • There is a comprehensive section on letter writing covering personal, business, and official correspondence. While it explains the requisites of the good letter—its style, layout - it also provides a number of model letters for quick guidance

2015 U.S. Higher Education Faculty Awards, Vol. 2 Faculty Awards.2015-12-29 FacultyAwards.org is the first and only university awards program in the United States based on faculty peer evaluation. Faculty Awards was created to recognize outstanding faculty members (as viewed by their Faculty peers) at colleges and universities across the United States. Faculty members voted through the 2014-2015 academic year for their peers at their academic departments and schools within a number of categories. . Access to FacultyAwards.org to nominate and vote for Faculty was limited to university professors or faculty members at accredited U.S. institution of higher education. . Faculty members were nominated and voted for by other faculty members in their own academic departments and schools. We strove to maintain an accurate peer-review process. Voting was not open to students or the public at large. In addition, faculty members voted for educators only at their own college or university. Winners for the 2014-2015 academic year, in all departments and colleges across U.S. institutions of higher education were announced in March 2015 and are permanently archived at FacultyAwards.org, as well as recognized in this 2015 print edition of the Faculty Awards Compendium. For the academic year 2014-2015 votes were cast to nominate and vote for Faculty members, and no self-voting was allowed, to assure the integrity of the whole process. This volume of the Faculty Awards Compendium includes Faculty awardees within Business, Education, Health Sciences and Nursing, Law, Medicine, Political & Policy Sciences, and Public Affairs Disciplines for the 2014-2015 academic year. A total of 1216 winning Faculty members in 637 higher education institutions were determined after tallying the votes. We would like to thank all Faculty members who participated in the voting process and to wish all the Faculty awardees continued success in their academic endeavors. We look forward to resuming the voting process for the 2015-2016 academic year awards.
