AvaxHome is a pretty simple site that provides access to tons of free eBooks online under different categories. It is believed to be one of the major non-torrent file sharing sites that features an eBooks&eLearning section among many other categories. It features a massive database of free eBooks collated from across the world. Since there are thousands of pages, you need to be very well versed with the site to get the exact content you are looking for. Unlike Project Gutenberg, which gives all books equal billing, books on Amazon Cheap Reads are organized by rating to help the cream rise to the surface. However, five stars aren't necessarily a guarantee of quality; many books only have one or two reviews, and some authors are known to rope in friends and family to leave positive feedback. Similar to PDF Books World, Feedbooks allows those that sign up for an account to download a multitude of free e-books that have become accessible via public domain, and therefore cost you nothing to access. Just make sure that when you're on Feedbooks' site you head to the "Public Domain" tab to avoid its collection of "premium" books only available for purchase. You won't find fiction here - like Wikipedia, Wikibooks is devoted entirely to the sharing of knowledge. eBookLobby is a free source of eBooks from different categories like, computer, arts, education and business.
