Urban Memory and Visual Culture in Berlin Simon Ward.2016 As sites of turbulence and transformation, cities are machines for forgetting. And yet archiving and exhibiting the presence of the past remains a key cultural, political and economic activity in many urban environments. This book takes the example of Berlin over the past four decades to chart how the memory culture of the city has responded to the challenges and transformations thrown up by the changing political, social and economic organization of the built environment. The book focuses on the visual culture of the city (architecture, memorials, photography and film). It argues that the recovery of the experience of time is central to the practices of an emergent memory culture in a contemporary 'overexposed' city, whose spatial and temporal boundaries have long since disintegrated.

'Heimat' Friederike Eigler,Jens Kugele.2012-10-01 The concept of Heimat with its seemingly pre- or anti-modern connotations of rootedness in a place of origin is central to a critical understanding of German history and culture. Over the course of the past fifteen years, scholars across a range of disciplines have found new ways to examine the changing notions of Heimat - its multifaceted cultural, literary, and visual history, its gendered connotations, and its national and ideological appropriations. This anthology is the first to examine cultural manifestations of Heimat by giving special consideration to issues of memory and space. The contributions to this volume challenge static notions of place often associated with Heimat. Instead, they explore the social and cultural production of places of belonging as they emerge in literary and visual narratives ranging from 1800 to 2000 and beyond. Although the anthology includes historical perspectives on Heimat, its overall objective is not to trace its cultural or literary history, but to place this complex term into new conceptual contexts. Drawing attention to manifestations of Heimat within German literary and cultural studies provides a rich ground for exploring the transformation of locality in trans/national contexts.

Shifts in the Welfare Mix Adalbert Evers,Helmut Wintersberger.1990 Shifts in the welfare mix today often mean that the state, confronted with a difficult modernization of the economy, places more burdens on the shoulders of people and households. The contributors to this volume argue that these shifts could be used as opportunities to restructure the relationship between the state, economy and civil society. They examine the welfare mix in several West European countries, including Italy, France, Austria, and the UK, comparing and contrasting aspects of these welfare structures with the structures that exist in the East European nations of Yugoslavia, Poland, and Hungary.

Three Cities After Hitler Andrew Demshuk.2021-09-21 Winner, 2023 SAH Alice Davis Hitchcock Book Award Three Cities after Hitler compares how three prewar German cities shared decades of postwar development under three competing post-Nazi regimes: Frankfurt in capitalist West Germany, Leipzig in communist East Germany, and Wrocław (formerly Breslau) in communist Poland. Each city was rebuilt according to two intertwined modern trends. First, certain local edifices were chosen to be resurrected as "sacred sites" to redeem the national story after Nazism. Second, these tokens of a reimagined past were staged against the hegemony of modernist architecture and planning, which wiped out much of whatever was left of the urban landscape that had survived the war. All three cities thus emerged with simplified architectural narratives, whose historically layered complexities only survived in fragments where this twofold “redemptive reconstruction” after Nazism had proven less vigorous, sometimes because local citizens took action to save and appropriate them. Transcending both the Iron Curtain and freshly homogenized nation-states, three cities under three rival regimes shared a surprisingly common history before, during, and after Hitler—in terms of both top-down planning policies and residents’ spontaneous efforts to make home out of their city as its shape shifted around them.

Wirtschaftliche Resilienz in deutschsprachigen Regionen Rüdiger Wink, Laura Kirchner, Florian Koch, Daniel Speda. 2015-12-01 Das vorliegende Buch vereinigt Fallstudien zur Krisenfestigkeit in acht deutschsprachigen Regionen mit jeweils unterschiedlichen strukturellen Voraussetzungen, Anpassungsstrategien und -instrumenten, Krisenerfahrungen und wirtschaftlichen Erfolgen. Im Vergleich zu anderen europäischen Ländern wird die wirtschaftliche Entwicklung in den deutschsprachigen Ländern Deutschland, Österreich und Schweiz während des vergangenen Jahrzehnts positiv beurteilt. Beschäftigung und Exporte stiegen an, und das Wirtschaftswachstum sank lediglich relativ kurzfristig im unmittelbaren weltweiten Wirtschaftskrisenjahr 2009. Die Fallstudien basieren auf Experteninterviews in den jeweiligen Regionen und auf nationaler und europäischer Ebene sowie zwei Workshops mit Praktikern aus untersuchten Regionen in Baden-Württemberg und Sachsen. Zielgruppen für das Buch sind zum einen Praktiker in Landesregierungen, regionalen und lokalen Wirtschaftsförderungen, Kammern und Verbänden und zum anderen regionalwissenschaftliche Forscher.

Designing Grid Cities for Optimized Urban Development and Planning Carlone, Guiseppe, Martinelli, Nicola, Rotondo, Francesco. 2018-03-02 With the growth of the global population, the expansion of metropolitan areas has become an essential aspect of land development. With the need for more space to accommodate the growing population, discussion on the best methods of expansion has arisen. Designing Grid Cities for Optimized Urban Development and Planning is a critical scholarly resource that explores the expansion and extension of metropolitan areas following “orthogonal” development plans. Featuring coverage on a wide range of topics, such as built environment, grid cities, and orthogonal urban matrix, this publication is geared towards engineers, city development planners, professionals, academicians, researchers, and students seeking current research on the advantages of using orthogonal development plans for metropolitan expansion.

Bowling for Communism Andrew Demshuk. 2020-10-15 Bowling for Communism illuminates how civic life functioned in Leipzig, East Germany's second-largest city, on the eve of the 1989 revolution by exploring acts of urban ingenuity amid catastrophic urban decay. Andrew Demshuk profiles the creative activism of local communist officials who, with the help of scores of volunteers, constructed a palatial bowling alley without Berlin's knowledge or approval. In a city mired in disrepair, civic pride overcame resentment against a regime loathed for corruption, Stasi spies, and the Berlin Wall. Reconstructing such episodes through interviews and obscure archival materials, Demshuk shows how the public sphere functioned in Leipzig before the fall of communism. Hardly detached or inept, local officials worked around centralized failings to build a more humane city. And hardly disengaged, residents turned to black-market construction to patch up their surroundings. Because such urban ingenuity was premised on weakness in the centralized regime, the dystopian cityscape evolved from being merely a quotidian grievance to the backdrop for revolution. If, by their actions, officials were demonstrating that the regime was irrelevant, and if, in their own experiences, locals only attained basic repairs outside official channels, why should anyone have mourned the system when it was overthrown?

Terra Incognita Ann O'M. Bowman.2004-04-06 Boon or blight? Ann Bowman and Michael Pagano define vacant land broadly, to include everything from brownfields (environmentally contaminated land) through trashed lots and abandoned buildings to greenspace (parks, community gardens, etc.). Terra Incognita takes a fresh look at what they believe can be the ultimate urban resource. Beyond the common studies of the influence of market forces, it explores how these areas are affected by the decisions of local governments, and then shows how vacant land can be a valuable strategic asset for localities. Terra Incognita derives from what—until now—has been the lack of substantial information about the amount and the diversity of urban vacant land. This book is based on an unprecedented survey sent to all U.S. towns with a population greater than 50,000, and contains data previously unavailable. Three cities were studied in greater depth for detailed case studies: the greater Phoenix and Seattle areas and Philadelphia-Camden. A number of other cities are cited frequently, including Boston, Chicago, Detroit, New York, Cleveland, Cincinnati, and Oklahoma City, among many others. Identifying the fiscal, social, and development imperatives that drive the decisions local officials make about using vacant land, Bowman and Pagano pay particular attention to the varying dynamics of sales, property, and income taxes, and conclude with a model for making strategic decisions about land use based on a city's priorities.

Das industrielle Erbe Niederösterreichs Gerhard A. Stadler.2006 Niederösterreich beherbergt eine der ältesten Industrielandschaften Europas und besitzt ein reiches industrielles Erbe. Dieses zu erforschen ist Aufgabe der Industriearchäologie, die sich mit den Überresten des Industriezeitalters befasst und aus den Spuren sowie der Hinterlassenschaft industrieller Tätigkeit, die vielgestaltige Industriegesellschaft zu rekonstruieren versucht. Seit dem sich abzeichnenden Wandel von der Industrie- zur Kommunikationsgesellschaft erhielt die Industriekulturforschung einen besonderen Stellenwert im Rahmen der Geschichtsschreibung. Als für die Industriearchäologie und Industriedenkmalpflege grundlegender Aufgabenbereich erfasst die Inventarisierung die materiellen Überreste, die als Dokumente des Industriezeitalters das Verständnis für seinerzeitige Produktionsvorgänge und Arbeitsbedingungen überliefern. Die vorliegende Publikation ist das Ergebnis einer flächendeckenden Inventarisierung von Industriebauten und verkehrstechnischen Anlagen im Bundesland Niederösterreich. Einführend wird die Entwicklung der Industriedenkmalpflege in Österreich skizziert, der Geschichte und Methode der Industriearchäologie nachgegangen. In dem als Handbuch konzipierten Katalog werden etwa 1.000 Objekte des industriellen Erbes von A (wie Absberg) bis Z (wie Zwettl), und zwar von der mittelalterlichen Getreidemühle bis hin zum modernen Walzwerk in Wort und Bild vorgestellt.

Demolition on Karl Marx Square Andrew Demshuk.2017-08-30 Communist East Germany's demolition of Leipzig's perfectly intact medieval University Church in May 1968 was an act decried as cultural barbarism across the two Germanies and beyond. Although overshadowed by the crackdown on Prague Spring mere weeks later, the willful destruction of this historic landmark on a central site symbolically renamed Karl Marx Square represents an essential turning point in the relationship between the Communist authorities and the people they claimed to serve. As the largest case of public protest in East German history between the 1953 Uprising and 1989 Revolution, this intimate local trauma exhibits the inner workings of a dictatorial system and exposes the often gray and overlapping lines between state and citizenry, which included both quiet and open resistance, passive and active collaboration. Through deep analysis of untapped periodicals and archives (including once-classified State documents, Stasi, and police records, and extensive private protest letters), it introduces a broad cast of characters who helped make the inconceivable possible, and restores the voices of not a few ordinary citizens of all stripes who dared in the name of culture, humanism, and civic pride to protest what they saw as an inconceivable tragedy. In this city that later started the 1989 October Revolution which ultimately triggered the fall of the Berlin Wall, residents from every social background desperately hoped to convince their leaders to step back from the brink. But as the dust cleared in 1968, they saw with all finality that their voices meant nothing, that the DDR was a sham democracy awash with utopian rhetoric that had no connection with their everyday lives. If Communism died in Prague in 1968, it had already died in Leipzig just weeks before, with repercussions that still haunt today's politics of memory.

Аллотопии. Чужое и Другое в пространстве восточноевропейского города Марина Дмитриева. Города Восточной Европы, с их палимпсестом исторических наслоений, могут служить наглядными примерами драматического конфликта памяти. Войны, прокатывающиеся через регионы Восточно-Центральной Европы, миграции и депортации жителей, следы имперского насилия и борьбы за национальную или региональную независимость, частая смена политических режимов, а также сложившийся веками многонациональный состав городского населения — все это оставляет глубокий след в городской среде. Книга Марины Дмитриевой посвящена поискам мест Другого в городах Центральной и Восточной Европы. Автор анализирует, как в городской среде пересекаются и спорят друг с другом режимы давнего и недавнего прошлого, а les lieux de mémoire — «памятные места» (фр.), по определению Пьера Нора, — неожиданно оказываются чужими для этой среды. От исторических монументов до фотографий, сделанных зарубежными наблюдателями в странах социалистического блока, — предметом исследования становятся самые разные объекты восточноевропейской визуальной культуры. Марина Дмитриева — историк искусства, сотрудник Научно-исследовательского центра истории и культуры Восточно-Центральной Европы (Лейпциг), преподает в Лейпцигском университете.

Spatial Commons. Urban open spaces as a resource Klever, Paul,Klotz, Steffen,Pappert, Lukas,Schulze, Jens.2017-10-18 Space has to be discussed once one focuses on the commons, the natural and cultural resources securing the well-being of a community. The question of availability of these resources includes asking for the place where they are accessible or where they are made accessible and thus always the question of the spatial organization of this society. This publication wants to provide a first overview about historical types of commons, about contemporary theories on urban commons, and speculate about possible forms of future commoning. Die Beschäftigung mit den Gemeingütern, den elementaren natürlichen und kulturellen Ressourcen, die dem Wohle der Gemeinschaft dienen, fordert auch eine Auseinandersetzung mit Räumen. Denn die Frage nach der Verfügbarkeit von Ressourcen schließt die Frage nach dem Ort, an dem diese für die Gemeinschaft zugänglich sind oder zugänglich gemacht werden, und damit immer auch die Frage nach der räumlichen Organisation dieser Gemeinschaft, ein. Diese Publikation gibt einen ersten Überblick über historische Typen von Allmenden, über die aktuelle Theoriebildung zum Thema des urbanen Gemeingutes und spekuliert über mögliche Formen von zukünftigem Commoning.

ErinnerungsORTE weiter denken Richard Hufschmied, Karin Liebhart, Dirk Rupnow, Monika Sommer. 2023-12-04 Heidemarie Uhl war eine renommierte Wissenschaftlerin, Vermittlerin, Ideengeberin, Netzwerkerin und Projektleiterin sowie eine unermüdliche Mentorin, die jungen Wissenschaftler*innen unprätentiös half, ihren Weg zu finden. Für all dies soll diese Publikation eine Würdigung sein. Der vorliegende Beitragsband war als Festschrift für Heidemarie Uhl geplant und sollte ihr Mitte September 2023, rund um ihren 67. Daher ist aus der Festschrift für trauriger- und schmerzhafterweise ein Band in memoriam Heidemarie Uhl geworden. Die Publikation mit Beiträgen von Kolleg*innen und Freund*innen, Wegefährt*innen und Schüler*innen setzt sich mit dem Forschungsfeld Uhls auseinander: den Erinnerungskulturen und Geschichtspolitik. The Spirit of Utopia. 2000-08 I am. We are. That is enough. Now we have to start. These are the opening words of Ernst Bloch's first major work, The Spirit of Utopia, written mostly in 1915-16, published in its first version just after the First World War, republished five years later, 1923, in the version here presented for the first time in English translation. The Spirit of Utopia is one of the great historic books from the beginning of the century, but it is not an obsolete one. In its style of thinking, a peculiar amalgam of biblical, Marxist, and Expressionist turns, in its analytical skills deeply informed by Simmel, taking its information from both Hegel and Schopenhauer for the groundwork of its metaphysics of music but consistently interpreting the cultural legacy in the light of a certain Marxism, Bloch's Spirit of Utopia is a unique attempt to rethink the history of Western civilizations as a process of revolutionary disruptions and to reread the artworks, religions, and philosophies of this tradition as incentives to continue disrupting. The alliance between messianism and Marxism, which was proclaimed in this book for the first time with epic breadth, has met with more critique than acclaim. The expressive and baroque diction of the book was considered as offensive as its stubborn disregard for the limits of disciplines. Yet there is hardly a discipline that didn't adopt, however unknowingly, some of Bloch's insights, and his provocative associations often proved more productive than the statistical account of social shifts. The first part of this philosophical meditation--which is also a narrative, an analysis, a rhapsody, and a manifesto--concerns a mode of self-encounter that presents itself in the history of music from Mozart through Mahler as an encounter with the problem of a community to come. This we-problem is worked out by Bloch in terms of a philosophy of the history of music. The self-encounter, however, has to be conceived as self-invention, as the active, affirmative fight for freedom and social justice, under the sign of Marx. The second part of the book is entitled Karl Marx, Death and the Apocalypse. I am. We are. That's hardly anything. But enough to start.

Antisemitismus im 19. Jahrhundert aus internationaler Perspektive Mareike König, Oliver Schulz. 2019-05-20 Der Blick zurück auf den Antisemitismus im 19. Jahrhundert zeigt seine internationale Verflechtung und erleichtert zugleich das Verständnis des Antisemitismus im 20. Jahrhundert und in der Gegenwart. Denn das 19. Jahrhundert war konstitutiv für die Entstehung einer neuartigen Judenfeindschaft und wurde zu einem Experimentierfeld von Antisemiten in verschiedenen Ländern. Diese standen untereinander in Verbindung und strebten zeitweise sogar die Errichtung einer »antisemitischen Internationale« an. Die Beiträgerinnen und Beiträger befassen sich mit dieser lange vernachlässigten internationalen Dimension und nehmen die politischen, wirtschaftlichen, gesellschaftlichen sowie kulturellen Aspekte des Antisemitismus im »langen« 19. Jahrhundert in den Blick. The 19th century played a constitutive role for the emergence of a new form of Judeophobia and became an ideological laboratory for anti-Semites from various countries. These communicated with each other and, at times, even tried to set up an "anti-Semitic International". The contributors deal with this international dimension, which had been neglected by researchers for a long time, and address the political, economic, social as well as cultural aspects of anti-Semitism in the "long" 19th century.

Das Jahr 1813, Ostmitteleuropa und Leipzig Marina Dmitrieva, Lars Karl. 2016-07-11 In Anknüpfung an die vielfältige historische Erforschung der Kommemorierung von Kriegen sowie der damit einhergehenden Formen von Erinnerungspolitik widmet sich dieser Sammelband einer Thematisierung des Völkerschlachtereignisses in den Gedächtniskulturen Ost(mittel)europas. Konkreten Anlass dazu bot das Leipziger Doppeljubiläum: jenes der Schlacht im Jahre 1813 sowie das der Einweihung des Völkerschlachtdenkmals im Jahre 1913. Im Zentrum stehen dabei kultur- und erinnerungsgeschichtliche Perspektiven - mit einem Schwerpunkt auf jeweiligen nationalen Narrativen und daran hängenden Mythenbildungen. Auch finden mediale Aufbereitungen des Ereignisses in Literatur, bildender Kunst und Film besondere Berücksichtigung.

Dabei geht es neben Plätzen und Parks um all jene Räume, in denen Begegnung und Integration stattfindet: analoge Räume wie Kitas, Schulen, Bibliotheken, Sportplätze oder Eckkneipen und digitale Räume wie die sozialen Medien. Das Buch liefert Ansätze für eine neue Strategie der öffentlichen Räume. Es sucht nach Auswegen aus der gesellschaftlichen Segregation in Stadt und Land, in der Digitalisierung, in der Bildung und in den ästhetischen Räumen von Kunst und Sport.
