Integrating Ancient Civilizations with Reading Instruction Trisha Callella. 2002-10-01 Students often struggle to comprehend nonfiction reading materials in the content areas. It can also be difficult to fit in social studies curriculum given all you have to teach every day. Integrating Ancient Civilizations with Reading Instruction is a dual solution! This resource includes six units that are based on the most common social studies topics taught in sixth grade in accordance with the national social studies standards. Each unit provides a nonfiction social studies story; prereading and postreading strategies; critical thinking, logic, and test-taking pages; as well as a hands-on social studies activity. Using the lessons in this resource, students will continue learning to read while reading to learn. They will also become more successful readers while gaining new social studies knowledge and experiences, and you will maximize your teaching time by integrating the social studies curriculum with reading instruction.
