The Design City Marco Sammiceli, Anna Mainoli. 2019-05 Milan has long been a platform for creating design. The infrastructure and facilities in Milan have made it central to the world of design, graphics, and architecture since the mid-1950s, and the Milan Furniture Fair and fashion industry have given it a permanent place of prominence on international calendars. Designers, companies, and furniture makers have long been the driving force of a world that must constantly reinvent itself to stay fresh and competitive. The book covers major past events and their connection to Milan while also exploring the current situation and offers thoughts for the future. It shines a spotlight on the stories of many generations of Italian and foreign designers who share having contributed to the Milan design system, which became well established on an international scale over the span of nearly a century (1950-2020). The designers were chosen based on their careers, their connections to Milan because they studied or worked here, whether opening their own studios or serving in other organisations (such as style offices, technical company offices, and schools), and for having kept their international relevance. The two common threads are the places where their creative design process happened and the voices of the designers themselves. Interviews with the key players of the Milan design scene bring together ideas and insights about the creative people who bring the city alive. The goal is to capture an ever-evolving world and to portray Milan's international spirit through the voices of those who embody it. AUTHOR: Marco Sammiceli teaches at the Design School of the Politecnico of Milan, and he has been design curator for Abitare since 2014. 300 colour, 80 b/w images

Eero Saarinen Objects Furni Pub March 2021 Muga et al Dachs/De.2012-05 Despite the brevity of his career, Eero Saarinen (1910-1961) was one of the most celebrated architects of his time. The Life and Death of Objects Lars Lerup.2022-04-15 Rethinking the fundamentals of planning Lars Lerup's conceptual explorations as a designer and thinker have been inspired by philosophers and artists from Foucault to Beckett. Lerup's furniture designs elude consumer culture. They conform neither to what is commonly understood as useful nor to what is typically regarded as necessary. They question the assumed functions of furniture and, at the same time, their assigned place in space. His pieces interrogate their roles and positions and introduce a disturbing or at least disconcerting note to conventional floor plans. This autobiography of a design project is about rendering visible the consumerism that is driving the current economically motivated expansion of our cities, and dealing with the consequences for the environment and society.

Alvar Aalto Patricia de Muga, Sandra Dachs, Laura García Hintze. 2007 Alvar Aalto (1898-1976) is the most prestigious Finnish architect of the last century, and the father of Nordic Modernism. He once said, God created paper for the purpose of drawing architecture on it. Everything else is at least for me an abuse of paper. In the U.S. Aalto's critical reception began with his design for the Finnish Pavilion at the 1939 World Fair in New York: Frank Lloyd Wright described it as a work of genius. After World War II, Aalto also designed MIT's student dormitory. Prior to this, the architect's Paimio Sanatorium (1929) and Viipuri Library (1935), both in Finland, had already attracted international praise. He was also an outstanding town planner, painter and sculptor. Aalto's Modernism entailed the use of natural materials, warm colors, and undulating lines, and he is considered an important early exponent of Organic Design as a result. Of his design work outside of architecture, Aalto's vases, lamps, glassware and laminated bent-plywood furniture (pioneered and produced through the design company he co-founded, Artek) are equally esteemed. Iconic pieces include the Savoy Vase, the Paimio Chair and the Beehive Lamp. This monograph on Aalto's highly collectible furniture designs expands our understanding of the diverse abilities of this influential architect/designer.

Arne Jacobsen Arne Jacobsen. 2010 This publication features furniture designed by Arne Jacobsen, including his famous Egg and Swan chairs. Also included are ashtrays, tables, desk and ceiling lights, clocks, glassware, cutlery and curtains.

Ludwig Mies Van Der Rohe & Lilly Reich Christiane Lange. 2006 Businessman and art collector Hermann Lange entertained a close connection to Mies van der Rohe and interior designer Lilly, and their associations involved family, friends, and Lange's company. From 1927 to 1930 this resulted in structures such as Lange's own home, Haus Lange in Krefeld, as well as the Crous apartment for Lange's eldest daughter and her husband in Berlin. The couple took the decor and furnishings for this apartment - down to the bell plate - to all of their later apartments, even into the 1990s. This volume is therefore the first to present many of van der Rohe's and Reich's furniture pieces, as well as the original decor from Haus Lange [now a museum], thus providing new insights into the collaboration of the two designers.--BOOK JACKET.
