An Inaugural Address, Delivered Before the Board of Trustees of the Rock-Island University Jonathan A. Woodruff. 2016-08-24 Excerpt from An Inaugural Address, Delivered Before the Board of Trustees of the Rock-Island University: At the First Annual Commencement of That Institution, August 25th, 1841 There is one feature in the moral aspect of things, which seems to indicate, that this region should receive special notice, in respect to the culture of that science which is peculiarly adapted to the genius of American institutions. I allude to the fact, that papacy as with prophetic. Eye, has discovered the future importance of our position, and has commenced her operations within our immediate sight. Behold yonder edifice on the opposite side of the river It may excite no alarm in our bosom, but it is full of meaning, and furnishes a sufficient admonition that it is our duty to fortify the minds of our youth with that education which is consonant with American freedom. What then is that culture which sound experience and the nature of our civil constitution prescribe as that with which our sons and daughters shall be furnished? The one who enters upon the work of making this prescription finds his task to be one of no small difficulty. It requires the Skill of the Mariner between Scylla and Charibdis. To avoid on the one hand, the awful vortex of menial subordination, which in the dark ages engulfed the whole eastern world; and on the other, to pass in safety the rocks of anarchy, and insubordination which, send a thrill' of her every 'vein at the very mention of the French Revolution. Science the True Basis of Education Charles Arthur Ely. 2015-07-09 Excerpt from Science the True Basis of Education: An Address Delivered Before the Board of Trustees of the College of California, at Its First

Commencement, at Oakland, June 14th, 1860 Mr. President and Gentlemen: There are few occasions that awaken such deep and varied feelings, as the first assembling of those whose interest in the great cause of education, - in the right developing of the noble faculties and powers implanted in the mind of man - has led them to found an institution for the accomplishment of this transcendantly important end. And such an occasion becomes vastly more impressive, when, as now, the institution whose energies are just about to be vitalized, is raising its untried form, in a State which has itself just sprung into existence; which, without a precedent in the history of nations, has culminated in its infancy - has expanded during the few years which most of you can overlook, without passing to another decade of your lives - into a great and powerful State, equal in wealth and population to some of those which bore a part in the founding of our national government - whose existence extends back even to that historical period, when time throws its misty veil over the record of events, and in the dim past, the distance and the middle distance, begin to mingle. It would be natural to suppose that thus early in her infancy, her attention would be wholly engrossed with her physical wants and necessities: but no; already we see her earnestly directing her thoughts and energies to the establishment of those sources of literary and scientific knowledge, without which no people can hope for permanent prosperity, or a position of honor and dignity among nations. The Board Book: An Insider's Guide for Directors and Trustees William G. Bowen.2008-04-17 By far the best book on corporate and institutional governance. —Nicholas Katzenbach, former attorney general of the United States In his new foreword to The Board Book, former Mellon Foundation and Princeton University president William G. Bowen brings his immense experience to bear on the most pressing questions facing boards of directors and trustees today: seeking collaborative relationships and placing a renewed emphasis on sustainable initiatives. The strategies Bowen relates throughout the book foster the collegiality and sense of purpose—more important in today's turbulent times than ever before—that are integral to any effective board.

Wallis, State Librarian The Board of Trustees of the California State Library met at the private office of the State Librarian, in the State Capitol building, on Monday, August 13, 1883, for the purpose of investigating certain charges which had been preferred by Trustee J. J. Owen against Talbot H. Wallis, State Librarian. There were present - Trustees A. C. Freeman, Henry Edgerton, I. S. Belcher, J. J. Owen, and Matt. F. Johnson. The minutes of the meeting of the Board held on July 26, 1883, were read by the Secretary pro tem., C. E. Gunn, corrected in certain particulars, and approved as so corrected. On motion of Trustee Edgerton, S. Solon Holl was permitted to appear as counsel in the prosecution of the charges, he having requested the Board to permit him to appear in that capacity, as counsel for Miss M. A. Patton.
