Would You Rather For Kids Candice Nolen.2023-11-27 Embark on an extraordinary adventure with our spellbinding book designed to captivate the imagination of children and young teens! The 350+ Questions You Never Knew You Wanted to Ask Your Family And Friends And the Ways These Can Help for a Magical Bonding Experience How well do you know your family or friends? Oh, you think you're an expert? If so, can you answer this question: would your best friend prefer they wear wet socks or have a popcorn piece stuck in their teeth? This one got you, didn't it? The right questions can help you learn so much about the people you love and (think) you know well. In today's busy world, families and loved ones don't really get to spend a lot of time together. When they do, some will potentially be stuck in front of the smartphone or television screen. That's not how you should talk and connect. Spending good time together as a family is really important for several reasons: 1. It helps build your kid's confidence. 2. You can make good behaviors more likely, even if you act silly or play games. 3. Time with the family can actually help them do better in school. 4. Plus, you'll be making memories that will stick with you forever. 5. And guess what? You don't need fancy gadgets to have fun as a family. It doesn't take much to bring out the awesome imagination that kids have. Just one question can often do the trick. What's Inside? - Exciting Superhero Dilemmas: Would you rather swing through the city like Spider-Man or soar through the sky with Iron Man's suit? - Magical Movie Moments: If you had the power, would you rather talk to animals like Dr. Dolittle or understand and control plants like Groot? - Enchanting

Adventures: Would you rather journey to Mars or explore the depths of the ocean? I'm Glad My Mom Died Jennette McCurdy. 2022-08-09 * #1
NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER * #1 INTERNATIONAL BESTSELLER * MORE THAN 2 MILLION COPIES SOLD! A heartbreaking and hilarious memoir by iCarly and Sam & Cat star Jennette McCurdy about her struggles as a former child actor—including eating disorders, addiction, and a complicated relationship with her overbearing mother—and how she retook control of her life. Jennette McCurdy was six years old when she had her first acting audition. Her mother's dream was for her only daughter to become a star, and Jennette would do anything to make her mother happy. So she went along with what Mom called "calorie restriction," eating little and weighing herself five times a day. She endured extensive at-home makeovers while Mom chided, "Your eyelashes are invisible, okay? You think Dakota Fanning doesn't tint hers?" She was even showered by Mom until age sixteen while sharing her diaries, email, and all her income.
In I'm Glad My Mom Died, Jennette recounts all this in unflinching detail—just as she chronicles what happens when the dream finally comes true. Cast in a new Nickelodeon series called iCarly, she is thrust into fame. Though Mom is ecstatic, emailing fan club moderators and getting on a first-name basis with the paparazzi ("Hi Gale!"), Jennette is riddled with anxiety, shame, and self-loathing, which manifest into eating disorders, addiction, and a series of unhealthy relationships. These issues only get worse when, soon after taking the lead in the iCarly spinoff Sam & Cat alongside Ariana Grande, her mother dies of cancer.
Finally, after discovering therapy and quitting acting, Jennette embarks on recovery and decides for the first time in her life what she really wants. Told with refreshing candor and dark humor, I'm Glad My Mom Died is an inspiring story of resilience, independence, and the joy of shampooing your own hair.
