The Online Books Page: Maintained by the University of Pennsylvania, this page lists over one million free books available for download in dozens of different formats. With a collection of more than 45,000 free eBooks, Project Gutenberg is a volunteer effort to create and share eBooks online. No registration or fee is required, and books are available in ePub, Kindle, HTML, and simple text formats. Beside each of these free eBook titles, you can quickly see the rating of the book along with the number of ratings. This makes it really easy to find the most popular free eBooks. Once you've found a book you're interested in, click Read Online and the book will open within your web browser. You also have the option to Launch Reading Mode if you're not fond of the website interface. Reading Mode looks like an open book, however, all the free books on the Read Print site are divided by chapter so you'll have to go back and open it every time you start a new chapter. Every day, eBookDaily adds three new free Kindle books to several different genres, such as Nonfiction, Business & Investing, Mystery & Thriller, Romance, Teens & Young Adult, Children's Books, and others. To stay up to date with new releases, Kindle Books, and Tips has a free email subscription service you can use as well as an RSS feed and social media accounts. Consider signing up to the free Centsless Books email newsletter to receive update notices for newly free eBooks and giveaways. The newsletter is only sent out on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, so it won't spam you too much. Just like with library books, when you check out an eBook from OverDrive it'll only be loaned to you for a few weeks before being automatically taken off your Kindle. You can also borrow books through their mobile app called Libby. Make Sure the Free eBooks Will Open In Your Device or App. Every e-reader and e-reader app has certain types of files that will work with them. When you go to download a free eBook, you'll want to make sure that the eBook file you're downloading will open.
