The Book of Peace Karen Green,Constant J. Mews,Janice Pinder.2016-11-29 Christine de Pizan, one of the earliest known women authors, wrote the Livre de paix (Book of Peace) between 1412 and 1414, a period of severe corruption and civil unrest in her native France. The book offered Pizan a platform from which to expound her views on contemporary politics and to put forth a strict moral code to which she believed all governments should aspire. The text's intended recipient was the dauphin, Louis of Guyenne; Christine felt that Louis had the political and social influence to fill a void left by years of incompetent leadership. Drawing in equal parts from the Bible and from classical ethical theory, the Livre de paix was revolutionary in its timing, viewpoint, and content. This volume, edited by Karen Green, Constant J. Mews, and Janice Pinder, boasts the first full English translation of Pizan's work along with the original French text. The editors also place the Livre de paix in historical context, provide a brief biography of Pizan, and offer insight into the translation process.

Soten No Ken T03 Buronson,Tetsuo Hara.2022-04-06 « Tu ne le sais pas encore, mais tu es déjà mort. » Alors que tous le croyaient mort depuis des mois, Kenshirô a finalement retrouvé son camarade de toujours, Pan Guanglin. Enfermé dans d'horribles geôles et livré en pâture aux rats, il a frôlé la mort, mais son retour pourrait sonner la renaissance du Syndicat de Jade. Tout n'est pas si rose pour autant, car Kenshirô a toujours des comptes à régler avec Lingwang, le maître du Hokuto Sonkaken. Après un duel sans merci où chacun y a laissé un bras, les deux combattants se retrouvent à l'hôtel de la paix pour en découdre. Mais cette nouvelle confrontation promet une surprise de taille à Kenshirô... Tetsuo Hara et Buronson reviennent plus de dix ans après la fin du cultissime Hokuto No Ken, vendu à plus de 100 millions d'exemplaires dans le monde, dans une préquelle centrée sur l'oncle de Kenshirô, Kenshirô Kasumi, 62e successeur de la légendaire technique du Hokuto Shinken. Cette réédition de Soten No Ken, vivement attendue par les lecteurs de la toute première série, est le deuxième titre d'une collection dédiée à Tetsuo Hara. Au plus proche de la version originale (sens de lecture japonais, onomatopées sous-titrées), elle bénéficie d'une nouvelle traduction, d'un nouveau lettrage et d'une fabrication soignée.

African Yearbook of International Law / Annuaire Africain de Droit International, Volume 12 (2004) A. A. Yusuf.2005-11-01 Founded in 1993, the African Yearbook, now published under the auspices of the African Foundation for International Law, is the only scholarly publication devoted exclusively to the study, development, dissemination and wider appreciation of international law in Africa as a whole. Through the scholarly analysis of international legal issues of particular relevance to the African continent, it also contributes to the acceptance of, and respect for the rule of law in intra-African relations, and for the principles of international law in general. Its uniqueness however goes beyond this, for through its special themes and general articles, it has succeeded over the years to serve as an intellectual forum where the development of international law is viewed as being integral to Africa's own development. Through the study and analysis of emerging legal issues of particular relevance to Africa, such as the creation of viable continental institutions capable of promoting unity and security for the peoples of the continent, the effective protection of human rights, the need for accountability for mass killings and massive violations of the rule of law, the promotion of a rule-based democratic culture, the role of African countries in a globalizing world economy and in international trade relations, the Yearbook strives to be responsive to the intellectual needs of African countries in the area of international law, and to the continuing struggle for creating an environment conducive to the rule of law throughout the continent. The Yearbook also provides ready access to the basic documents of African international organizations by regularly publishing the resolutions and decisions of regional and sub-regional organizations as well as the conventions, protocols and declarations adopted by pan-african agencies.
