Child Development John W. Santrock. 2004 In this topically organized introduction to child development, John Santrock balances the content instructors want with the and pedagogy students need. Child Development 9th edition continues Santrock's tradition of presenting cutting edge research and offering strong, integrated coverage of culture, ethnicity and gender, and school related issues. An expert consultant reviewed each chapter to ensure that the latest research is reflected. For students, the text's highly praised pedagogical system has been enhanced to improve understanding of how all of the material fits together.

Quality of Life and Pharmacoeconomics in Clinical Trials Bert Spilker. 1996 The Second Edition of this groundbreaking work refines the art and science of quality of life assessment and pharmacoeconomics and redefines the role of these evaluation parameters in clinical trials and health care decision-making. Dr. Spilker has assembled more than 200 experts from diverse clinical, research, and social science disciplines to provide a comprehensive reference on the methodology, interpretation, and use of quality of life and pharmacoeconomic studies. Expanded to four times its predecessor's size and scope, the Second Edition features: all-new sections on pharmacoeconomics and crucial health policy issues such as outcomes research a new, extensive section on cross-cultural and cross-national issues in quality of life assessment detailed information on specific tests and measures of quality of life comprehensive guidelines on choosing and administering tests and analyzing, interpreting, and presenting data many chapters on new topics such as phenomenology, assessment of spiritual status, and alternative/complementary medical treatments.

A Guidance Document for the Costing Process Jean-François

Baladi,Office canadien de coordination de l'évaluation des technologies de la santé.1996 This document is intended to help researchers determine costs when undertaking economic evaluations of health care in Canada. It is not a cost accounting document but provides guidance for economic evaluations and as such, can be used along with the Guidelines for the Economic Evaluation of Pharmaceuticals: Canada 1994. This document has three sections. Section 1 contains general guidance for the costing process. It identifies possible biases that could distort cost estimates, and offers practical tips on how to minimize them. Section 2 elaborates on the measurement and valuation of resources. It identifies categories of services, provides options for their estimation, gives guidance as to when each option is acceptable, discusses some issues that surround each option and suggests sources of information. Section 3 suggests a format for the reporting of cost estimates.

Electronic Health Records WHO Regional Office for the Western Pacific, World Health Organization. Regional Office for the Western Pacific. 2006 This manual has been designed as a basic reference for use when exploring the development and implementation of electronic health record (EHR) systems. It provides a general overview, some basic definitions and examples of EHR practices. Also covered are points for consideration when moving towards the introduction of an EHR, some issues and challenges which may need to be addressed and some possible strategies, along with steps and activities to implementation. There is a particular focus on setting goals, revising policies, developing an action plan and outlining implementation procedures.
