Here is an updated version of the $domain website which many of our East European book trade customers have been using for some time now, more or less regularly. We have just introduced certain upgrades and changes which should be interesting for you. Please remember that our website does not replace publisher websites, there would be no point in duplicating the information. Our idea is to present you with tools that might be useful in your work with individual, institutional and corporate customers. Many of the features have been introduced at specific requests from some of you. Others are still at preparatory stage and will be implemented soon. Ebooks are available as PDF, EPUB, Kindle and plain text files, though not all titles are available in all formats. The Open Library: There are over one million free books here, all available in PDF, ePub, Daisy, DjVu and ASCII text. You can search for ebooks specifically by checking the Show only ebooks option under the main search box. Once you've found an ebook, you will see it available in a variety of formats. Once you've found a book you're interested in, click Read Online and the book will open within your web browser. You also have the option to Launch Reading Mode if you're not fond of the website interface. Reading Mode looks like an open book, however, all the free books on the Read Print site are divided by chapter so you'll have to go back and open it every time you start a new chapter. The time frame a book is available as a free download is shown on each download page, as well as a full description of the book and sometimes a link to the author's website. Ebooks on Google Play Books are only available as EPUB or PDF files, so if you own a Kindle you'll need to convert them to MOBI format before you can start reading. You can literally eat, drink and sleep with eBooks if you visit the Project Gutenberg website. This site features a massive library hosting over 50,000 free eBooks in ePu, HTML, Kindle and other simple text formats. What's interesting is that this site is built to facilitate creation and sharing of e-books online for free, so there is no registration required and no fees. Think of this: When you have titles that you would like to display at one of the conferences we cover or have an author nipping at your heels, but you simply cannot justify the cost of purchasing your own booth, give us a call. We can be the solution. Booktastik has free and discounted books on its website, and you can follow their social media accounts for current updates.
