Tasting Rome Katie Parla, Kristina Gill. 2016-03-29 A love letter from two Americans to their adopted city, Tasting Rome is a showcase of modern dishes influenced by tradition, as well as the rich culture of their surroundings. Even 150 years after unification, Italy is still a divided nation where individual regions are defined by their local cuisine. Each is a mirror of its city's culture, history, and geography. But cucina romana is the country's greatest standout. Tasting Rome provides a complete picture of a place that many love, but few know completely. In sharing Rome's celebrated dishes, street food innovations, and forgotten recipes, journalist Katie Parla and photographer Kristina Gill capture its unique character and reveal its truly evolved food culture—a culmination of two thousand years of history. Their recipes acknowledge the foundations of Roman cuisine and demonstrate how it has transitioned to the variations found today. You'll delight in the expected classics (cacio e pepe, pollo alla romana, fiore di zucca); the fascinating but largely undocumented Sephardic Jewish cuisine (hraiimi con couscous, brodo di pesce, pizzarelle); the authentic and tasty offal (guanciale, simmenthal di coda, insalata di nervitti); and so much more. Studded with narrative features that capture the city's history and gorgeous photography that highlights both the food and its hidden city, you'll feel immediately inspired to start tasting Rome in your own kitchen.

Wild Sweets Dominique Duby, Cindy Duby. 2004 Welcome to the world of wild sweets -- a place of indulgence where East meets West, innovation meets tradition. These playful desserts are based on wild and exotic ingredients and appeal to the senses in their taste, texture and shape. With Wild Sweets, Dominique and Cindy Duby introduce a whole new way of thinking about dessert. In seven chapters, they create a menu that elevates sweets from the ordinary to the sublime. No longer is dessert just one course: like a fine meal, it begins with canapes and cocktails, builds with sweet dishes made from fruit and berries, grains and seeds or even sweet vegetables -- often augmented with chocolate or icewine -- and finishes with decadent cookies and chocolates. To accompany each course, the Dubys suggest sweet wines and icewines to draw out the flavours and heighten the experience. From their unique professional life as food consultants, culinary educators, chocolatiers and participants in world pastry competitions, the Dubys share not only their outstanding original recipes but also their cooking secrets. In informative sidebars, they demystify the art and science of pastry with clear explanations of processes such as gelatinization and caramelization, since understanding how pastry works will help to prevent failures. In addition, they offer a primer on selecting colours, plates and serving dishes for artful presentation. Set the table, open a good bottle of icewine and prepare to be enchanted by the newest and most exciting developments in the world of sweets. Book jacket.
