Topics include: a list of penalty point offences and fixed charge penalty offences, setting out the charges which can accrue under particular sections of the road traffic Acts, applicable defenses and the penalties that apply, including disqualification periods. The book also refers to relevant Irish case law in respect of drunk driving cases, and it contains reference to the provisions of the new Road Traffic Act 2010.

reference to litigation on intoxicants, dangerous driving, careless driving and drug driving along with many other areas of Road Traffic Law. This title covers both practice and procedure and each section is annotated fully and cross referenced. The layout is user-friendly and where relevant makes reference to earlier volumes. This is crucial as road traffic law is a vital part of many smaller solicitors' firms' daily work and this title provides them with annotated legislation in an area rife with difficulty as the legislation is piecemeal and often contradictory. Many Statutory Instruments and Acts are created in this area: some enacted in full, others not. This book updates the practitioner on this thorny area of law and points them to relevant case law where necessary.
